SLAP TAKEN AT FEDERAL GRAND JURY IN PROBE

Department of Labor Is Interested in Cases of Immigration Inspectors; Make Inquiry

RETENTION OF MEN TAKEN AS REBUKE

Investigating Board of Government Satisfied and Officials Exonerated Despite Charges

That the department of labor at Washington has interested itself in the cases of six officials of the United States Bureau of Immigration here under indictment for conspiracy to break the laws of the United States and failing possible penitentiary terms, was made known today. The fact that an investigating board, headed by James B. Dunsmore, assistant secretary of labor, acting in conjunction with Immigration Commissioner Anthony Caminetti, administered a liberal cost of whitewash exonerating all of them, subsequently accused by the Federal Grand Jury, lends spice to the story of interest in the case.

The result of that, although charged with placards and setting aside all local precedents, the officials have not been suspended, and are even now exercising the functions of their office at Angel Island, is taken to confirm the report of the attitude of the department regarding them. The officials accused are William T. Boyce, assistant immigration commissioner at this port; Frank Hayes, inspector in charge of deportation; Joseph Strand, inspector in charge of immigration; William H. Clegg, director of the office of labor; David Graham and R. J. Smith, watchmen. Their retention on duty is taken as an energetic slap at the Federal Grand Jury.

INDICTED IN MARCH.

These men were indicted February 10th for conspiracy to violate the immigration laws and the Chinese exclusion act, punishable by large fines and by ten years in a Federal penitentiary. The smuggling into San Francisco of 86 Chinese coolies on the steamship Mongolian, the plot for which was hatched in China, was responsible for the accusation. The government claims that all the officials were cognizant of the Chinese on the Mongolian and while no specific amount of bribe money is set forth in the true bill, it had been rumored that the conspirators in China agreed to pay $500 a head or $50,000 in all for the successful landing of the coolies.

Although they are accused specifically of failing to perform the duties of their office in connection with these Chinese, neither the assistant immigration inspector or his chief assistant, who are among those accused, have been suspended. They are exercising the functions of their office just as though they had not been charged with prostituting the authority Uncle Sam had given them and considerable criticism has resulted. It is pointed out that in August, 1913, when ten Chinese coolies were indicted for conspiracy and bribe-taking in connection with wholesale smuggling operations, they were promptly suspended by Inspector John O. Davis.

The reason that the present defendants are holding their posts even though not cleared of the charges against them, is said to be directly due to the fact that they were exonerated by investigators of the department of labor.

STILL IN CHARGE.

Not only are they still in charge at Angel Island, hearing and investigating deportation cases, but they have under their direct control six of the 56 coolies held as witnesses for the government.

The coolies have been made of the attitude of these inspectors and their methods of dealing with cases before them, is well known. Chinese Consul-General S. C. Shu has protested against the detention for sometimes a period of six months of Chinese whose cases are being investigated.

Two British War Craft Are Sunk 47 Lives Lost in Diver and Mine Disasters

LONDON, March 10.—The British torpedo boat destroyer Coquette and torpedo boat Number 11 have been sunk by striking mines, it was officially announced this afternoon.

The official announcement says the number of casualties in connection with the sinking of the warships was forty-five. The statement follows:

"The torpedo boat destroyer Coquette, Lieut. Vere Seymour, R. N. R., in command, and H. M. torpedo boat No. 11, Lieut. John A. T. Leigh, R. N., have struck mines off the east coast and sunk. The casualties were:

Coquette—An officer and twenty-one men.

The torpedo boat—Three officers and twenty men."

LONDON, March 10.—The French bark Ville de Havre of 3109 tons has been sunk. The bark was in ballast. Twenty-six of the crew were saved, two being lost.

PARIS, March 10.—A Havas dispatch from Havre says that the French line steamship Louisiana sank last night at 11 o'clock. All the crew were saved. No passengers were aboard. It is presumed that the vessel was sunk by the same submarine that has been operating along the coast between Boulogne and Havre.

French in Denial of German Statement of Capture of Vaux

BERLIN, March 10.—Capture of the Ablain Wood was announced today by German army headquarters. It was stated that the French had regained a foothold in the fort of Vaux.

PARIS, March 10.—There was no change in the situation before Verdun either east or west of the Meuse, according to a semi-official announcement made here this afternoon. The announcement adds that the violent bombardment continues on both banks of the Meuse, but that there has been no infantry attack by the Germans.

An official note has been issued categorically denying the statement made in the German official communication of March 9 "that the village and armored fort of Vaux were captured in a glorious night attack by Posen reserve regiments under the leadership of General von Gneisenau." This assertion, the note says, is in every way false.

The note denies other statements contained in recent German official communications.

The text of the announcement given out by the French war office this afternoon reads:

"In the Argonne district our artillery has surrounded certain convoys of the enemy moving along the road from Montfacon to Autocourt.

"There has been no change in the situation west or east of the river Meuse. The night passed without the enemy making any infantry attack against our positions. This bombardment, however, has continued, both sides taking part along our front.

It has been violent on the left and right banks of the river Meuse and intermittent in the Woerpe district.

"In Alsace our batteries have demolished the German trenches at Hui No. 425, which is east of Thann.

"During the day of March 9 French airmen delivered a number of attacks, most of them over the lines of the cooles.

During one of these engagements at Erleben fifteen German airmen were forced to flee. Later ten of them were seen to be descending vertically in the direction of their own lines.

"In addition to this information has been received containing the SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Up to yesterday morning the registration to date in San Francisco totaled 46,944, according to Chinese Consul-General S. C. Shu. He has protested against the detention for sometimes a period of six months of Chinese whose cases are being investigated.

ACTION URGED BY CONGRESSMEN

RAIDERS HALT CAVALRYMEN

Citizens of Columbus, N. M., and Other Border Towns Fearful More Outrages May Come

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 10.—A considerable force of armed civilians left hastily today for Gibson's ranch, fifteen miles west, upon receipt of a report that a body of Mexican bandits had appeared near that point. Colonel H. J. Slocum immediately took steps to determine the correctness of the report.

Federal troops in increased numbers early today patrolled the Mexican border near Columbus as a precaution against further invasions of American territory by Francisco Villa's bandit army, which yesterday in a surprise attack upon this town killed sixteen American citizens and soldiers, wounded twelve, burned buildings and looted stores before being driven back into Mexcio by American troops.

Villa and the main body of bandits was reported fifteen miles south of the international line, where they halted after a running fight yesterday by pursuing United States troopers.

Signal fires seen along the border south of here last night were believed, however, to have been placed by bandits and a report that armed raiders were in the vicinity of Hatchet, N. M., led the military authorities to dispatch reinforcements to the border patrol there.

The possibility of further bandit raids was admitted by army officers and armed civilians and state militiamen and cowboys were co-operating with the federal authorities in maintaining a border patrol.

FIRST REINFORCEMENTS.

The first reinforcements arrived early today when the first battalion of the Twentieth Infantry, 250 men, under Major William R. Sample, arrived from Fort Bliss on a special train. The battalion, after receiving a fresh supply of ammunition, was dispatched by Colonel H. J. Slocum, commanding the troops here, to Victoria, thirty-two miles west.

Other troops were reported to have been dispatched at various points along the border.

The pursuit of Villa and his men by 250 American cavalrymen under Majors Tompkins and Lindsay ended when the Villa forces made a determined stand after reaching a series of hills fifteen miles south of the border. The casualties to the American forces in this battle consisted of the death of a corporal, whose name has not yet been learned, and the wounding of Captain George Williams, who sustained a bullet wound in the hand. The Mexican casualties in this engagement were not reported.

BANDITS LOSE MANY.

The attempt of Villa to carry out his threat to "kill all gringos" proved disastrous to his own numbers. It is estimated that more than a hundred Mexicans were killed and twice that number wounded in the assault on Columbus.

Soldiers and citizens divided attention to the vigil along the international boundary with the work of clearing yesterday's battle field of Mexican dead. Approximately seven-five Mexican dead had been found today on the American side and either burned or buried. Several wounded Mexicans who had lain in the brush all night were taken to the hospital.

Major Frank Tompkins, who yesterday returned to Columbus with troopers that followed Villa into Mexico, estimated the Mexican dead in the battle with Villa's rear guard at fully one hundred.

None of the Mexican wounded died at the American emergency hospital here during the night. One of the wounded is a Villa general named Garcia. The troopers under Majors Tompkins and Lindsay that pursued Villa into Mexico returned late yesterday and aided in patrolling the border during the night.

GUARD FOR WOMEN.

With the first battalion of the Twentieth Infantry stationed at Victoria early today, Colonel Slocum has about 840 men under his command, prepared to meet any further advances by Villa on American soil. Armed civilians kept guard at the schoolhouse where their wives and daughters spent the night.

The Mexican quarter was closely guarded by patrols.

The town was quiet and dark except for the glowing embers of the ruins of the hotel.

At 11:30 a. m. and Southwestern train No. 8, east bound, with most of the passengers and crew heavily armed, reached here at 9 o'clock. Trainmen reported quiet prevailed at Hatchet and Victoria, where American troops are stationed.

Troops are scattered all along the road from Hatchet to Columbus.

Lack of field telegraph and telephone equipment, it was learned, was responsible for the delay in the arrival at Columbus of two troops of cavalry from the station at the Gibson ranch. Word of the Columbus fighting was not received there until 8 o'clock. Although Major Lindsley started immediately it was almost two hours later before he reached Columbus with his two troops.

TONG WAR THREATENS TO INVOLVE COAST CITIES

Skulking Gunmen Invade East Bay Cities on Mission of Murder

Oakland is threatened with one of the most active tong wars in the history of Pacific coast feuds among the Chinese, according to the police, who today were informed that the murderous Suey Sing tong had formed an alliance with the Hop Slags in their war with the Suey Ons. The police say that wholesale killings are hourly expected.

So perturbed is Captain of Inspector Walter J. Petersen over the situation that he has had a special squad of forty officers detailed to the Chinatown district. The patrolmen have been instructed to arrest all suspicious-looking Chinese. Chinatown is being combed for gunmen in the employ of the three tongs.

The police have learned that Jung Yew, who was shot to death in his room at 317 Sixth street last night, was murdered by members of the Suey Sing tong. This has confirmed the reports that the Suey Slags have joined forces with the Hop Slags. The members of the former tong are known as among the most warlike of all the Chinese tongs with the exception of the

The three gunmen opened fire on the Suey On man without a word of warning. The unidentified roommate of Jung Yew swung himself behind the door when the three Suey Slags entered with drawn revolvers. All three opened fire at once, each firing

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED IN SENATE

Senator McCumber Appeals to President to Destroy Bandits

Reviews Acts in Mexico and Demands Speedy Punishment

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota, introduced a resolution in the Senate today providing that Congress shall direct the President to immediately send an armed force into Mexico "to hunt and destroy" murdering bandits guilty of atrocities against American citizens. The resolution declares:

"Whereas, This government, actuated by a most earnest desire to refrain from interference in the internal affairs of Mexico, has exhausted every possible effort to prevent the recurrence of atrocities and secure redress for the wrongs inflicted upon the citizens; and

"Whereas, Such efforts have been worse than fruitless and the failure of this government to exert its active efforts to protect the lives and property of its citizens has enthralled and encouraged these bandits to the commission of further atrocities against our people; and

"Whereas, Such efforts have been worse than fruitless and the failure of this government to exert its active efforts to protect the lives and property of its citizens has enthralled and encouraged these bandits to the commission of further atrocities against our people; and

"Whereas, These bandits, cuttinating in the invasion of our soil and the massacre of our people cannot longer be borne; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Congress of the United States, That the President be and he is hereby directed to send to Mexico a sufficient force to hunt down and destroy these murdering bandits and punish all those guilty of these atrocities against our citizens wherever they may be found. And the President is authorized to use any force necessary to carry into effect this purpose or to overcome any opposition from any source in Mexico to prevent any accomplishment.

Whereas, There is no government whatever in Mexico capable of punishing these atrocious acts or to protect American lives; and

Whereas, These bandits, cuttinating in the invasion of our soil and the massacre of our people cannot longer be borne; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Congress of the United States, That the President be and he is hereby directed to send to Mexico a sufficient force to hunt down and destroy these murdering bandits and punish all those guilty of these atrocities against our citizens wherever they may be found. And the President is authorized to use any force necessary to carry into effect this purpose or to overcome any opposition from any source in Mexico to prevent any accomplishment.

President Wilson took the same position and at once instructed Secretary Baker to issue the necessary orders. He also instructed Secretary Lansing to inform General Carranza of the attitude of the American government.

Leaders of both houses of Congress were immediately notified from the White House of the President's action. They approved his course. Before deciding finally to send troops after Villa the President conferred over the telephone with Chairman Stone of the Senate foreign relations committee, who told him he believed the sentiment of Congress would solidly support his action.

AMBASSADOR SILENT.

It was considered possible that within a few days President Wilson might go before Congress to recite the series of acts by Villa which led up to the ordering of troops to effect his capture. The President desires to move with the entire co-operation of Congress.

Efisio Arredondo, General Carranza's ambassador, received the news of the President's decision with the statement that he could make no comment and would at once notify General Carranza. Yesterday he declared it was his own opinion that such action would not be resented.

No move will be made by the navy for the present. Virtually the entire Atlantic fleet, however, is within two days' sail of the Mexican coast, and should Carranza's forces be unable to protect Americans or other foreign subjects in case of rioting the navy will be pressed into service immediately. This was stated yesterday in the navy department.

While the Senate was talking and some desultory speeches were being made in the House, the President acted, and the leaders, notified quickly by telephone from the White House, passed the word around. It spread quickly, but both House and Senate received it as early as announcement of the passage of routine bills. The Democrats generally expressed the opinion that the President's action was wholly justified, and the Republicans who have been urging action expressed gratification that it had been taken. There was no sign of dissension.

CARRANZA SILENT.

MEXICO CITY, March 10.—General Carranza does not care to make a statement in regard to the situation resulting from the raid on Columbus, N. M. A rigid censorship has been imposed. Newspapers are printing nothing of the raid and the public has not been advised of it.

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 10.—Carranza authorities, according to officials from Juarez, would not object to the entry of American troops into Mexico to attack Villa. In fact messages have been received here stating that Carranza cavalry had left Guzman to take the bandit chief in rear with the expectation that American troops, whom they supposed to have already crossed the border, would attack him.

The Carranza troops, it was said, carried a black and white flag to notify the American troops of their identity. General Gaylira, commanding at Juarez, has the bandits' escape to the eastward blocked and official information from Agua Prieta was to the effect that Military Governor P. Elias Culea had disposed troops in the last twenty-four hours to cut Villa off from entry into Sonora. General Gutierrez was reported watching the south.

against the immigration officials," declared Consul Shuyler. "I have been forced to protest against it. From prominent Chinese has come the charge that their cases are delayed and that they are held too long before the officers have satisfied themselves that they are entitled to a hearing. I intend to see if possible whether something cannot be done to change these conditions."

-NO TANGIBLE EVIDENCE.

Asked if he had information regarding the rumored price of $500 a head for the funding of Chinese here and of the alleged connection of immigration officials with the conspiracy, the consul replied: "I have no tangible evidence on these points. I have heard nothing from China regarding them. Information of various sorts have come to me and I have heard these stories. I have no direct evidence, and, of course, the matter is not one that is within my province. I have been directly appealed to regarding the delay in hearing the cases and establishing the status of Chinese at Angel Island and in that matter I am going to take a hand."

The cases against the six immigration officials will not be tried by the government until just at the earliest. Meantime the men are exercising their functions and the department of labor is said to be endeavoring to have the accusations quashed by the department of justice.

Boyes and his accused assistants have retained as their attorney George A. McGowan, who is well known for his connection with Chinese cases in this city. He has represented scores of Chinese accused in the Federal courts of violations of the immigration laws. McGowan said it was hoped to have the indictments against the immigration officials quashed to morrow, but if they had to go to trial he would probably withdraw from the case.

Supervisors to Bar Diseased Bee Hives

YREKA, March 10.—At the request of J. G. Gifftrap, a bee man of Montague, and Edison Faule of Gaselle, the supervisors have adopted an ordinance regulating the bee industry of Shasta county and providing for the appointment of a bee inspector.

The object is to keep all diseased hives out of Shasta county, it being generally known that many of the bees of Oregon are diseased and that the owners are preparing to bring them here. The ordinance is to take effect April 7, at which time an inspector, to serve without compensation, probably will be appointed.

sembilling ours, and they wore armlets similar to those on our men. This was quickly seen, through and they received a warm welcome. However, at the end of a certain time they were able to penetrate our first line trenches and establish themselves there. Counter attacks were made by us during the whole night, and after a hot grenade fighting our positions were practically maintained.

"On the 22d the bombardment was resumed, with the greater violence. Our trenches, hammered by shells, were rapidly leveled, the commanding trenches were destroyed and even the wood itself was moved down in large spaces. However, our chasseurs maintained the same impossibility.

"Toward midday we perceived large parties of the enemy, who, after having advanced toward the wood of Haumont, turned to the Caures wood with the intention of attacking us in the rear. All our telephonic communications had been destroyed the evening before and we were no longer able to communicate with the main body of our troops except by couriers. Many volunteered for this service, but none of them ever returned. The devotion of the chasseurs was inexhaustible, in these critical circumstances.

VIOLENCE INCREASES.

"The German attack increased in violence. A lieutenant sprang to the head of his company to repel the enemy. He was wounded in the hand immediately. He wrapped it in his handkerchief and sprang forward again, crying 'Forward!' A second bullet cut the word short in his mouth. As he fell to the ground another officer leaped automatically forward to take his place. He had gone to the mouth of the Elbe. Another saw it thirty-five miles northwest of Ymuiden. All the German ships were painted in war gray and were invisible at a short distance.

STORM OF IRON.

"A storm of iron began to pass over. It was, in fact, more than a storm; it was a deluge. Our shelters, even the best constructed, were demolished. About 11 o'clock the post at which I was was wiped out under the hail of shells, and fourteen chasseurs and one officer were buried in the debris.

"However, our men did not hesitate, but pressed forward to the aid of their wounded comrades as if it was simply a question of some common accident. Sergeant Captain, with some assistance, rescued nine victims and each one courageously prepared again to face the enemy. Under the fire of the enemy the soldiers labored to reinforce our fortifications in the wood.

"About 2 o'clock the effects of the bombardment were tremendous. There did not remain a single shelter worthy of the name. The officer next in command to Lieutenant Colonel Driant was seriously wounded and many of our chasseurs also were stricken.

"About 5 o'clock the enemy's artillery slackened its fire and we no longer suffered so much. The reason of this was that the Germans were about to hurl themselves on Haumont.

DISCOVERED RUSE.

"The front ranks of the enemy were dressed in capes somewhat resembling ours, and they wore armlets similar to those on our men. This was quickly seen, through and they received a warm welcome.

However, at the end of a certain time they were able to penetrate our first line trenches and establish themselves there. Counter attacks were made by us during the whole night, and after a hot grenade fighting our positions were practically maintained.

"The enemy, with very superior forces to ours, including an entire new brigade, swept down upon us. From the evening before until the morning of the 23d both battalions had suffered under most murderous fire. The enemy was endeavoring to turn both our flanks, and we fought with all our strength against this encircling movement.

"About 3:30 p.m. the situation suddenly became critical. The ring was tightening itself around us. The Germans had even brought up big gun, which was bombarding the very heart of our position. It was then that I was called to the post of Lieutenant Colonel Driant.

"Colonel Driant was stationed in the front line, which he had not left since the opening of the attack. He was leaning on his post surrounded by Commandant Renouard, Captain Vincent and Captain Hamel. Separately but calmly he declared to us: 'In a few more minutes it will be necessary to die or to be taken prisoner.' He waited a little while and added: 'I would prefer to die.' The tears flowed down his cheeks and we all wept. The most hardened of our chasseurs present at this scene were overwhelmed by emotion. Commandant Renouard reassured himself that there was nothing more in the shelter that could be of value to the enemy. All our archives and our plans had been burned on the 21st, and the order to retreat was given.

German Fleet
Back at Kiel

Naval Experts Believe
It Maneuver

LONDON, March 10.—The Kaiser's high seas fleet has eluded the British blockade squadron sent to search for it and returned to its base at Kiel. This definite information was contained in a Reuter dispatch from Ymuiden, Holland, which reached here early today.

One division of naval experts is of the opinion that the fleet was engaged in reconnoitering as a prelude to a huge naval battle.

Others hold that the sortie was to mask the escape of a number of commerce raiders.

There is a feeling of distinct disappointment at the news that the German ships have not tried conclusions with the British.

According to all accounts the German fleet included about fifty craft of all descriptions, from the most modern dreadnaughts down to old-fashioned torpedo boats. The fleet was escorted by two Zeppelins, which served as scouts to prevent a surprise attack by hostile vessels. One trawler sighted this fleet 165 miles due west of the mouth of the Elbe. Another saw it thirty-five miles northwest of Ymuiden. All the German ships were painted in war gray and were invisible at a short distance.

LONDON, March 10.—The number of non-combatants killed by Great Britain's enemies since the beginning of the war aggregated 3,163. Premier Asquith wired in reply to a request for information by Major Hunter. Forty-nine men, thirty-nine women and thirty-one children were killed by coast bombardments, and twenty-seven men, ninety-two women and fifty-seven children were killed in air raids.

Approximately 2,750 non-combatants lost their lives on board British merchant and fishing vessels between August 4, 1914, and March 8, 1916, but the detailed figures are not available.

PRESIDENT ORDERS ARMY TO TAKE VILLA, DEAD OR ALIVE

Troops Hurried to Border Stations

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 10.—The following movement of troops resulting from the border trouble is reported from Southern department army headquarters:

A battalion of infantry has been sent from Fort Bliss (El Paso) to Columbus.

A battalion of infantry, commanded by Major John D. Bennett, has been sent from Douglas, Ariz., to Hatchet, N. M.

Two companies of infantry have been sent from Douglas, Ariz., to Naco, twenty-seven miles west.

One company of infantry has been sent to guard the bridge near San Bernardino, east of Douglas.

Five troops of the Seventh Cavalry are moving east from Douglas into the Hatchet, N. M., district.

Six troops of the Tenth Cavalry have been sent to Douglas.

The posting of the infantry companies at strategic points leaves the cavalry free to concentrate at any point and patrol the border.

CONGRESSMEN ARE BEHIND PRESIDENT

the House that troops be sent across the border.

"The government should take this matter in hand at once," said Representative Smith of Texas, "send troops after the assassins, and pursue them until they are captured. They should be brought back dead or alive. If they are captured alive they should be brought to Columbus and hanged. It would put no limit on the number of titles our troops might have to go into Mexico to do this. To Carranza I would say that we are only doing our duty."

Senator Ashurst, Democrat of Arizona, sought immediate consideration of the McClintock resolution, but it was blocked on a motion by Senator Stone. Ashurst declared that from his own information of conditions on the border of his state, he knew that troubles in Mexico, instead of nearing an end, were only beginning.

"It is the duty of the Senate," he said, "to vote authority to send troops after those red-handed cut-throats, bring them back to Columbus, where they made a funeral pyre out of American citizens, and shoot them on the spot. That is, I would give them a grape shot instead of grape juice."

At the cabinet meeting the possibility was considered that some Carranza followers would join Villa on the assumption that the United States was invading Mexico, but the President felt convinced that Carranza and the Mexican people could be made to understand that the United States had no idea of impairing the sovereignty of the country.

Secretary Baker, it is said, was one of the most enthusiastic in favor of pursuing Villa.

Some officials suggested offering a reward for Villa's capture, but it was decided at once that the United States had better face the situation squarely and send troops to catch him.

The administration realizes that the search for Villa may be long and difficult. Major-General Funston, however, who probably will direct the expedition, if he does not actually lead it, established himself as a successful catcher of outlaws in the Philippines when he took Aguinaldo single-handed.

There is little expectation that Villa and his bandits will fight in the open. Guerrilla warfare is almost certain to result, but the American soldiers will receive orders to follow Villa, no matter where he goes.

Late this afternoon the House foreign affairs committee was called together at the request of the President, and Chairman Flood explained why the President did not feel that it was necessary to ask the consent of Congress before taking his action to-day. At the same time the President summoned Chairman Stone of the Senate foreign relations committee to the White House to lay the situation before him fully for the information of Senators.

"I shall not expend another shell on brother Mexicans," Villa wrote in the letter, "but will prepare and organize to attack the Americans on their own soil and let them know that Mexico is a land of the free and the tomb of thrones, crowns and traitors."

Villa proposed that the joint movement with Zapata against the United States should occur six months from January 6. Zapata, so far as known, made no movement to accept, and this may have been responsible for Villa's decision to march on Columbus alone.

Villa in the letter attributed his defeat at Agua Prieta last November to the action of the United States Government in permitting Carranza military authorities to send over American territory reinforcements for the Mexican town opposite Douglas, Arizona, and declared that an invasion of the sovereignty of Mexico was an insult to the people.

"At that time," Villa told Zapata, "I restrained, but with the greatest difficulty, the impulse of my troops to attack the city of Douglas."

Carranza, who also stated in the letter, had sold Mexico to the United States, agreeing to lease Magdalena Bay for ninety-nine years and giving over control of the Mexican National Railroad.

An invitation to General Emiliano Zapata to march north and join in an attack on the United States was sent by Francisco Villa in January, according to a copy of a letter found among Villa's captured papers. The letter was dated San Geronimo, Chihuahua, January 6, 1916.

12,000 TROOPS ARE ON BORDER

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Approximately 12,000 troops, with forty-eight mountain batteries and field guns, are on the border between Douglas, Ariz., and El Paso, Tex.

A little more than one-third of that force is cavalry and all could be assembled at any point between the two towns within two days. The cavalry and a battalion of mountain artillery, with twelve mountain guns especially designed for the fighting expected, could be in readiness within twenty-four hours.

The Thirteenth, Seventh, Eighth and Tenth Cavalry are scattered along the border between Douglas and El Paso. The Eleventh, Eighteenth and Twenty-second Infantry, the First Field Artillery and a battalion of the Fourth Mountain Artillery are at Douglas. At El Paso, about sixty miles from Columbus, are four regiments of Infantry, the Sixth, Seventh, Sixteenth and Twentieth. The Twelfth Infantry is at Nogales, between Columbus and Douglas.

REFUGEE SAYS WOMEN COLONISTS MURDERED

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 10.—Mrs. Maud Hawk Wright, wife of John Edward Wright, was taken prisoner with her husband and after nine days in captivity was released yesterday during the height of the battle before Columbus. Her baby, she said, was taken from her and she was told given to a Mexican family.

Mrs. Wright told how she learned Villa had premeditated the attack upon Columbus and of the privations endured by the bandits in their long journey to their objective.

A Mexican soldier told her that members of the Mormon colony, near Casas Grandes had been slain by bandits.

State Department officials said that no decision had been reached as to what the attitude of the United States would be if General Carranza objected to the presence of American soldiers in Mexico.

They said that the question would be met when it came up.

Dispatches to the Mexican consul at Columbus for the capture of the bandits was made, but if one does come it was said that it hardly could be returned.

GIRLS! TRY IT! HAVE THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, lustrous and appears as soft, delicate as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Restless beautifying the hair at once. Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knifton's Danderine from any drugstore or toilet counter, and just try it.

Save your hair! Beautify it! You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.—Advertisement.

BABY'S ROAD IS PAVED WITH DON'TS

CANADIANS SPLIT ON SALT TEMPTS HER RECRUITING PLAN HORSES TO TRICKS

Child Welfare Exhibit to Close Scheme to Increase Troops
Tomorrow to Go to Country.

225,000 Causes Hot Debate at Meeting.

A long list of "don'ts" appears in a treatise which Dr. John L. Morse of the Harvard Medical School has just issued on how to care for babies. Dr. Morse's treatise was written in the interests of Baby Welfare Week, educational campaign which is being made this week in all parts of the United States. He is one of the foremost baby specialists in the country.

One of Dr. Morse's most startling "don'ts" forbids sugar for infants. He says sugar the root of all babies' evils. He insists that babies should be made to eat what is set before them. Arms and legs, he says, should not be bent, except in the very hottest of weather.

Parents should never spanish their children, he insists. Few children grow through babyhood without the need of real corporal punishments, but the hands or the face should never be spanked. Obstetrics should be taught. Many children, he declares, have died of disease or accident because they had not been taught obedience and would not follow orders on a sick bed.

"Failure of the parents to teach obedience" should be written in on most death certificates in cases of child mortality, concludes Dr. Morse.

HEALTH ONLY GIFT.
Good health is all that a mother can give a child through parental influences, says Dr. A. B. Spalding, Stanford professor of obstetrics, who has issued a paper in which he prints the bubble-illusion that prospective mothers may, through certain actions, bring geniuses into the world. Here is what he says about it:

"All the work, study and thought in the world on the part of a prospective mother will not create a genius, nor even suggest a tendency in an unborn child. All she can do is to remain calm, untroubled, peaceful and give her baby a heritage of health and a good environment. God has taken care of its soul. It is not a clay which she may mould. The child has been an individual since its very conception.

LAWS OF VARIATION.
"The law of nature is the law of variation. Every individual differs from his parents. In the case of Siegfried, son of Richard Wagner, the father was a genius musical. Who knows, son? If a child finds its way into an environment where it fits, it will grow ahead and be of the race that makes the world."

"But, innately, the child is what it is at conception. If the parents have given it a big soul, it has one. If we could measure souls, a baby two months beyond conception would measure up with a man 30 years old. The difference would be merely one of development. The seed is there always."

"Alcohol consumed by prospective mothers may blot out the spark of genius. Unrest, concern during the pre-natal development of a child may blot out its chance of high soul development. But that I mean poverty, unrest, anxiety on the part of the mother. But the development of genius is, after all, dependent upon the strength of the spark. If strong enough, it may light its way to greatness despite conditions. We had an Honore Balzac, you know."

EXHIBIT TO CLOSE.
The Oakland Baby Welfare Week exhibit, which is being shown under the auspices of the officers of the Baby Hospital in the clinic room of the hospital at University and Dovet streets, will close tomorrow. Miss Marion of mothers have not left it since it was established last Saturday, and learned the lessons taught by the comprehensive system of charts which were brought over from the exhibit at the Palace of Education at the exposition.

Next week this exhibit will be sent about the country. It will be taken before each of the women's clubs, where an expert demonstrator and lecturer will explain the various charts in detail. Mrs. M. Marks, president of the Baby Hospital, says that the exhibit is to be made a permanent one.

Mrs. Jessie Prole,
Lecturer, Is Dead

Mrs. Jessie Prole, wife of Mrs. Jessie Prole, secretary of the Oakland Theosophical Society, passed away yesterday at her home, 3575 Diamond Avenue, after a brief illness. She was 51 years of age and was noted as a lecturer on theosophy.

She is survived by her husband and a daughter, Jessie Prole. She was the mother of the late Major Emory S. Foster and had lived in Oakland ten years, coming from St. Louis. Funeral arrangements are being made.

WINE AGREEMENT WILL BE REACHED

CHARITY BALL IS MAGNET TO THROG

California and Ohio Interests Benefit to Agree on a Compromise.

A compromise, by which the Ohio wine men will gain their contention, and the excessive war tax against California wines lightened, is the latest plan for the relief of the industry. Meetings between interested wine men of this county, Fresno, and other parts of the state and of representatives of the Ohio wine men, have been held in conjunction with the State Viticultural Commission, the sessions taking place in the Palace Hotel, San Francisco. The California wine men agree not to oppose the new definition of wine asked by the Ohio men, which would permit a wine fortified with grain alcohol to be termed "pure wine." In return Ohio is to agree to have the tax lowered.

The proposed compromise tax, to tax brands for wine fortification is 5 per cent. In addition to this all wines are subject to the stamp tax. A new bill provides a 2 per cent tax per gallon for fortification up to 20 per cent. The treasury department is demanding a heavier tax, to run as high as 20 cents per gallon after the ten per cent fortification limit is reached. It is intimated that the California wine men will not strenuously oppose the twenty-cent tax.

Mayor at Sanitarium for Minor Operation

Mayor John L. Doyle underwent minor operations today and will not be able to attend to his official duties for a week or more. The mayor sent a communication to the city council explaining that he was temporarily indisposed and that he would be absent for a week. The mayor, located at one of the well-known medicinal springs, has stated that he is expected to be absent from the city for about ten days. The mayor has been suffering from a painful abscess.

CHARITY BALL IS MAGNET TO THROG

California and Ohio Interests Benefit to Agree on a Compromise.

The arena of the Municipal Auditorium was crowded from door to door last night, when the big charity ball, under the united auspices of the Jewish societies of the east bay cities, was held. The big affair, for the benefit of the Jewish war sufferers, was one of the largest ever held in the city. The hall was decorated for the occasion, and special music and other features added in making the evening an attractive one. The various organizations, pooling their resources in planning the affair, among the organizations taking part in the affair were Chevra Kadisha, the Judaeans, the Zionists, the Shelter, the Willing Workers, the Congregations, Ruth Abraham, Beth Jacob and Alamedah; the California Menorah Society of Berkeley; the Oakland Workman Circle and the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Judaeans.

The executive committee in charge of the affair included Adolph Schwartz, chairman; Joseph Crater, secretary, and Louis S. Snook, treasurer.

WATER POWER MEN MEET.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Enacted by Congress of laws permitting the utilization of the nation's water-power for the development of electric energy will be urged by the Water Power Development Association, organization formed by representatives of manufacturers of hydro-electrical appliances, of whom it was said about 600, employing four hundred thousand men when operating to capacity, are behind the movement.

BATTLESHIP 44 TO HAVE GREAT GUNS

Rifles Larger Than Those on European Dreadnaughts, Say Officers.

MARE ISLAND, March 10.—Sixteen-inch rifles, bigger guns than are mounted on the European dreadnaughts, will probably be mounted on the new battleship No. 44, to be built at the Mare Island yards, according to naval officers, who say that plans for installing the new rifles, to be the heaviest in the world, are under consideration.

The new vessels will be equipped with the fast electric drive, which gives a maximum of speed, and other improvements in naval construction.

Some time ago the general board, in a confidential communication to the secretary of the navy, recommended 16-inch guns. It is stated that this recommendation has been reinforced by reports from Quantico, where some long-distance experimental target practice has been conducted.

The secretary, it is reported, is so favorably impressed with the results at Quantico that he has indicated to his advisory council that he will approve the plans for the larger guns.

"F" Submarines to Be Put in Shape

MARE ISLAND, March 10.—It was stated at Mare Island Thursday that the report of the board of inspection revealed the three "F" divots at the navy yard will be forwarded to Washington the latter part of the month. In all, about $100,000 will be appropriated by the present Congress for the construction of these craft, so that they can be used in the future for coast defense. Their gyrocompasses are now being overhauled by Hero Expert Lieutenant Monroe, U. S. N. The submarines are to have new engines and new batteries and will be in first-class condition when they leave Mare Island next year.

VALLEJO MAN FALTS.

VALLEJO, March 10.—John S. Freeman, who conducted the gambling rooming house at 3248 Geary street, had a narrow escape from being killed shortly before noon yesterday when he fell a distance of 20 feet from an open doorway in the rear of the house, striking on his back and head. When found he was lying on his back with his head doubled back under his shoulders, and it was thought he was dead.

VALLEJO MOOSE ELECT.

VALLEJO, March 10.—Justice of the Peace John A. Brown was elected Master of Vallejo Lodge No. 465, L. O. O. at the annual meeting held yesterday night. Other officers selected were: R. J. Dunn, vice-flotator; M. Bell, prelate; F. McKenzie, inner guard; S. Stringer, outer guard; George D. Hilditch, trustee; George J. Gruber, secretary; F. A. Whaley, treasurer.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

MARE ISLAND, March 10.—The governors Hill, Hopkins and Tuxton are to remain in dock No. 2 at Mare Island until March 22.

Engel Rowan and the Verba Buena Castro were unhooked at Mare Island yesterday. The Castro is to remain at Mare Island for a month at least as the machinery department mechanics are to manufacture and install a new cylinder head on one of her engines before she is again placed in commission.

ORANGE CAKE
1 cupful sugar 1/4 teaspoonful baking powder
3 egg-yolks 2 egg-whites
Juice of 1 orange 1 cupful bread-flour
1 cupful of salt

Heat the egg-yolks till cream, add the sugar, and blend thoroughly. Measure the orange juice and add water, if necessary, to make a half-cupful of liquid. Mix the baking powder with the flour, and add alternately to first mixture with the orange juice. Fold in the egg-whites beaten stiff. Bake in layers about five minutes in a hot oven; reduce the heat and cook more slowly till the cake is done—about fifteen minutes in all. Put together and ice with orange frosting, or use a jelly or whipped-cream filling, and sprinkle powdered sugar over the top. This cake will keep moist for several days.

Will Tell Words of Ancient Prophet

Dr. William Frederick Bade, professor of Old Testament literature in the Pacific Theological Seminary and author of "The Old Testament in the Light of Today," a book just from the press, which is attracting wide attention, will lead the after-church class at the First Congregational church, Twelfth and Clay streets, in a constructive study in this most fascinating book for the next six Sundays.

Professor Bade stands in the forefront of our modern Biblical scholars and it is thought this opportunity to study with him this section of Hebrew history, with its tremendous message for our own times, will be greatly welcomed by a large number in the city. His topics will be: March 12, "His Temple Vision and Prophetic Revelation"; March 19, "The Poetry of His Message"; March 26, "His Idea of Divine Holiness"; April 2, "Man and the Divine"; April 9, "God and Mediterranean History"; April 16, "God and the Sacrificial Culls."

RUBBER COMPANY FAILS.

FINDLAY, O., March 10. The Toledo Findlay Rubber Company, capitalized at $300,000, is in the hands of a receiver. Four directors petitioned for the receivership, alleging that mismanagement of the plant

Cologne Crowds Riot After Verdun Losses

AMSTERDAM, March 10.—The Telegraph states that it has received reports of serious rioting in Cologne on Tuesday last in consequence of the heavy losses of German troops in the battle of Verdun.

The reports are further to the effect that artillery had to be placed in the streets to overawe the crowds.

since its organization, fifteen months ago, is responsible for the failure to do a profitable business. Sheriff R. V. Kennedy was appointed temporary receiver.

GILL URGES DRY LAW BE ENFORCED

Seattle Mayor Writes Letter to the Anti-Saloon League.

SEATTLE, March 10.—Mayor Hiram C. Gill, in a letter to George D. Canner, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, has suggested a special prosecutor to aid in the enforcement of the prohibition law. The city council, Mayor Gill said, probably would be willing to appropriate money to pay such an attorney who would devote all his time to liquor cases. The mayor urged the Anti-Saloon League to co-operate with him in obtaining state legislation making violation of the prohibition law a felony instead of a gross misdemeanor as under the present statute. Mayor Gill asked Canner's cooperation in prosecuting physicians employed by some drug stores to write free prescriptions for patrons desiring to obtain liquor.

Oliva Gets Probation Despite Wife's Plea

SAN JOSE, March 10.—Pleading that he had been drinking when he married Miss Louise Newton here, December 27, without the formality of getting a divorce from his first wife, Camille R. Oliva, August 9, Oliva was admitted to probation at a short session of the court. Mrs. Oliva No. 1 made a strenuous protest against granting probation to her husband.

She declared that he had given her beatings, and she did not see any reason why she should help to save him from San Quentin. Oliva used a fictitious name when he was married here to Miss Newton, and she also gave a false name, S. Oliva, brother of the defendant, and Police Sergeant Lamber of San Francisco appeared as witnesses asking probation for Oliva. They said that ever since Oliva acted as sparing partner for Battling Nelson and other prize fighters in San Francisco, he had been utterly oblivious to everything when he got a drink or two.

"He isn't the kind of a man who ought to get probation," said Mrs. Oliva. "I think he ought to suffer to the full extent of the law. He never had any sympathy for me and I don't intend to have any for him now."

Lion Tamers Failed to Tame Each Other

SAN JOSE, March 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schell, widely known in theatrical and circus circles as wild animal takers, cannot agree. Pending the outcome of their divorce suit, which is on file in the Superior Court here, a referee was named by Justice P. E. Gobey today to consider the division of their community property. This property includes a $25,000 fruit ranch on the Meridian road and several wild animals, among them a pair of lions that have figured in theatrical events for several years.

J. G. McMillan was appointed referee to consider the portion of the property. Lions, tigers and leopards are kept in cages on the Schell ranch. Mrs. Schell accuses her husband of extreme cruelty.

Beggs Tells Story in Extortion Case

SAN JOSE, March 10.—Wm. M. Beggs, attorney, accused of extorting $200 from Joseph N. Da Rosa while the latter was in prison on a petty larceny charge, took the stand in his own defense yesterday and related all the circumstances of the payment of the money by Da Rosa.

He said that the proposal came from Da Rosa and that the money was in restitution for thefts from the store of Joseph Steinberg, where Da Rosa had been employed.

As attorney for Steinberg, Beggs is alleged to have received $100 of the money paid over by Da Rosa.

FATHER CLOSA DEAD.

SAN JOSE, March 10.—Father Valentín Closa, forty-two years priest at the Mission San Juan Bautista, is dead after an illness of many months. He was born in Catalonia, Spain, in 1841, and entered the priesthood in Los Angeles at the age of 23. Through his efforts the collection of religious and historical relics at the Mission San Juan is said to be the most valuable in the United States.

BEATEN IN HOBO CAMP FIGHT.

SAN JOSE, March 10.—One man was so terribly beaten that he may die, and three others are in jail in this city, another in Santa Clara and a fifth is a fugitive, as a result of a fierce fight in a hobo camp between College Park and Santa Clara. The injured man's name is unknown.

QUIT MEAT WHEN BACK HURTS OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Says Uric Acid in Meat Clogs Kidneys and Irritates Bladder.

A Glass of Salts Is Harmless Way to Flush Kidneys, Says Authority.

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys. In their efforts to expel it from the blood, they become sluggish and weak, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or neck, headache, dizziness, your stomach aches, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush on the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jade Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then feel fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jade Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. Advertise-

G. A. R. MEN HURT AT KENT 'SLAP'

Santa Rosa Veterans Denounce Efforts to Burlesque Soldiers.

SANTA ROSA, March 10.—The local post of the Grand Army of the Republic at its meeting here sternly denounced Congressman William Kent's latest "slap" at the old soldiers. The resolution follows:

Whereas, William Kent, who is misrepresenting the people of California in this, his last term in Congress, has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives intended to ridicule the veterans of the civil war, Mexican and Spanish-American wars, by purporting to appropriate a pension of $25 per month "for encouragement and relief of might-have-been heroes, the might-have-lived or perished gloriously in the super-heroic excess of ultra-patriotic sacrifice."

Mr. Kent, with super-heroic excess has thus rushed into the lime-light to expose his "ultra-monumental"ism.

While in Congress he has made several attempts to be funny and California blushes at this last imbecile antic-ground and lofty tumbling; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of Ellsworth Post, G. A. R., hold in contempt Kent's efforts to ridicule the veteran soldiers of this republic; further

Resolved, That Kent's burlesque

bill is unpatriotic, un-American and does not represent the sentiment of any worthy patriotic people; further

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolution be sent to Mr.

Kent, and that he be and is hereby requested to introduce them in the House and ask that they be referred to the same committee that his H. R.

No. 11331 has been sent.

RAILROAD PROPOSED CROSSING LAWS

Vehicles Must Come to a Full Stop Before Crossing Rails, Is Provision.

FRESNO, Calif., March 10.—Practically untried approval of the proposed state law compelling all vehicular traffic to come to a full stop before all railroad crossings was expressed by representatives from all sections of the San Joaquin valley, assembled in the safety first hearing of the Railroad Commission here to gather data on grade crossing conditions.

Three methods of remedying the dangerous conditions of grade crossings were presented by the witnesses. These were, first, separating grade crossings where feasible, and eliminating all useless crossings; second, legislation making it compulsory for all vehicular traffic to come to a full stop at every railroad crossing and the installing of warning signals by an obstacle in the center of the highway necessitating the vehicles to come to a slow speed in passing it, thereby eliminating the possibility of speeding across crossings; third, county ordinances and co-operative work to remove all obstructions to vision at crossings.

The commissioners declared the Fresno meeting the best yet attended in the sessions on grade crossings. Following the meeting the commissioners departed for San Francisco, where a hearing will be held tomorrow.

QUICKLY STOPS HEAD COLDS AND SNUFFLES

Catarrhal Germs Cause of Most Colds. New Germicidal Air Treatment Best Remedy for These Common Ailments.

Reliable authorities say that upward of 80 per cent of the so-called colds in the last few years are really diagnosed indications of the presence of catarrhal germs. When you hear a person sneeze or cough it's almost certain they are throwing catarrhal germs into the air for some other person to catch and it's just as bad that that person should be catching these germs will soon have a寒心 (寒心) cold. The time to make these germs harmless and drive out your catarrhal cold is the very instant you feel a desire to sneeze or cough or start to sneeze and wipe your nose every few minutes.

The quickest and surest way to stop a head cold and drive catarrhal germs out of your system is to take drops of the oil of Hymentol (germicidal inhaler) into one of the Hymentol inhaling devices which comes with each large package and place the inhaler between your lips and breathe the germs out but pleasant smelling air into your nose, throat and lungs. This air utterly destroys catarrhal germs. It quickly opens the closed air passages, makes breathing easy, clears your stuffed-up head, clears out your throat and ends your sniffling and sneezing. This is a much more quick and more satisfactory way of breaking up a cold, even after it is well started, and a few weeks' use will do away with all danger of chronic catarrh. Sold by the Drug Co., which agrees to turn the full purchase price to any who use it and are not satisfied. In buying Hymentol for the first time be very sure to get the larger size, which contains the inhaler, as this is very essential for best results.—Advertisement.

LOOKING FOR WORK

Everywhere men complain about work; even boys and girls in school or business find work tedious and irksome, but it isn't the work half so much as their own lack of physical strength that makes it hard.

Rich blood, strong lungs and healthy digestion make work pleasurable in business, in school or even housework, and if those who are easily tired—who are not sick, but weak and nervous—would just take Scott's Emulsion for one month and let its pure concentrated food create richer blood to pulsate through every artery and vein—let it build a structure of healthy tissue and give you vigorous strength—you would find work easy and would look for more. Ingest on Scott's.

A Hint to Mothers of Growing Children

A Mild Laxative at Regular Intervals Will Prevent Constipation.

ROLAND LEE TURNER

A vital point upon which all schools of medicine seem to agree is that normal regularity of the bowels is an essential to good health. The importance of this is impressed particularly on mothers of growing children. A very valuable remedy that should be kept in every home for use as occasion arises is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint, a compound of simple laxative herbs that has been prescribed by Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., for more than twenty-five years, and which can now be obtained in any well-stocked drug store for fifty cents a bottle.

In a recent letter to Dr. Caldwell, Mrs. H. C. Turner, 544 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., says, "I bought a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint for my baby, Roland Lee Turner, and find it works just like you said it would. It is obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill."

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint should be in every home. A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 454 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Capitalist F. H. Buck Dies in S. F. Hotel

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—Frank H. Buck, capitalist and owner of large land and lumber interests throughout California and a well-known figure in San Francisco club life, is dead of heart trouble at the Fairmont hotel, where he had lived for several years.

Many of Buck's interests centered around Vacaville, where he was at the head of the Frank H. Buck Fruit and Shipping company. Buck was also a vice-president and director of the Associated Oil Company of California, and a director of the Eurekafield Iron Works, the California Fruit Distributors and the Rose Land & Water company. His lumber interests extended to Eugene, Ore., where he was president of the Buck-Kelly Lumber company.

Buck was born in New York state in 1853, and came to this state in 1873. Among his clubs were: The Bohemian, Pacific Union, San Francisco Golf and Country, and Claremont Country clubs. He was also an Odd Fellow and Knight Templar. His two sons, Frank H. Jr., attorney, and Leonard, medical student, live in this city.

Buck will be buried in Vacaville tomorrow. The following will be pallbearers: William A. Harkness, his son-in-law; Alden Anderson, E. B. Henderson, D. P. Schwerin, William F. Herrin, Frank Traun, J. A. Chappell, W. E. Gerber, B. E. Green and M. H. Whittier.

DESERTED WIFE AND ELOPES; FORGIVEN

Maryland Affinity Ends Life When Faithless One Goes Home.

SALISBURY, Md., March 10.—Wm. K. Brewington, who deserted his wife and six children to elope with Miss Mary Spidle of Roanoke, who committed suicide, pleaded guilty today to charges of desertion, disorderly conduct and drunkenness. Miss Spidle drowned herself by jumping from the deck of the steamship Virginia on the way to this city from Baltimore, it is said, after Brewington had cast her off.

Mrs. Brewington who, up to this time, has had nothing to do with her husband, made a formal plea to Justice Bowell for mercy, and Brewington was placed under $200 bail to support his family. The charge of disorderly conduct was suspended for one year. Marion Eunis, mother of Mrs. Brewington, and Hammond Brewington, brother of William Brewington, became his bondsmen.

The authorities did not hold Brewington accountable for Miss Spidle's death, holding that she committed suicide through remorse. Brewington accompanied his wife and children to their home.

Rolph to Join in Oakland Celebration

Major James Rolph is to take part in the great parade with which the celebration of St. Patrick's day is to be inaugurated in this city Friday of next week, his formal acceptance of an invitation to join in the demonstration having been received by Major Charles J. Collins, who is to be grand marshal. Major Collins has also received acceptances from numerous other city officials.

The parade will proceed from Hibernian Hall to St. Patrick's church, where High Mass will be celebrated, beginning 10:30 o'clock. Archishop Edward J. Hanna, will preside at the altar. Rev. Father Thomas W. Holahan of St. Patrick's church, Oakland, is to officiate as celebrant, and the Rev. Father Daniel O'Keley of St. Augustine's church, Berkeley, will deliver the panegyric on St. Patrick.

It has been definitely agreed that in honor of the occasion the flag of Erin shall wave from the top of the new City Hall. Many stores and business houses will be decorated, prizes having been offered for the most effective displays.

The final program will be decided upon at the Irish convention to be held at Hibernian Hall, Valencia street, on St. Patrick's Sunday afternoon. These conventions have been held for the last two months and have brought together 600 delegates representing 25,000 members of Irish societies in the bay cities. As a result of the many meetings, the Irish people about the bay are now banded together in a tremendously effective organization.

S. P. Inaugurates Car Service Dept.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 10.—Following the assurances given early in the week by President William Spruille of the Southern Pacific, that to facilitate the supplying of cars for shippers on the company's lines in Oregon, a car service department would be established in Portland, official announcement of its creation was made today, to be under the direct supervision of the assistant general manager.

Already relief to the car shortage situation is being felt, according to Frank J. Miller, of the State Public Utilities Commission, who was in Portland today.

The Southern Pacific is still approximately 300 cars short of actual orders in this state," said Mr. Miller this morning. But since the commission prolonged the situation to Mr. Spruille and made it clear that Oregon was not getting cars to which it was entitled, considerable improvement has been noted."

Murderess of Priest Charged With Crime

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 10.—Mrs. Anna Budke of Minneapolis, who shot and killed Rev. Henry Jajeski at St. Casimir's Polish Catholic church here last Saturday night, was charged with first degree murder in an indictment returned late today by the grand jury. Mrs. Budke, who is being held at the county jail here, will answer to the indictment next Monday.

The funeral of Father Jajeski was held today, fifty priests assisting in the ceremony.

Mrs. Budke has asserted she shot the priest because he had wronged her. It is understood insanity will be her defense.

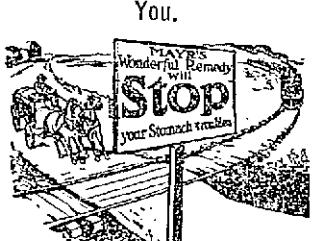

Six Men Killed in Colliery Explosion

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 10.—Six men were killed in two explosions at the Hollenbeck, Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company colliery here late today.

The accident occurred in the first deep gangway in Number Six Red Ash Slope of Hollenbeck No. 2 colliery about 3000 feet from the foot of the shaft. The cause of the accident has not been determined.

CALOMEL BAD FOR THE LIVER

Dose of Nasty Calomel Makes You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work.

Calomel salvoes! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with some bile it crashes into it, causing cramps and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headache, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.—Advertisement.

Wires Fall; Tie Up Commuter Traffic

A break of three high-power electrical wires at Thirty-fourth avenue and the railroad tracks in the Fruitvale district this morning tied up commuter traffic of the Southern Pacific Company for more than an hour, while thousands fled the waterfront situation.

The trouble started when a 60,000 volt wire of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company fell across a wire of the Great Western Power Company. It melted its way through and dropped upon the trolley wires of the Southern Pacific Company. The power on all three lines had to be shut off for more than an hour, from shortly after 7 o'clock until 8:20, while the damage was repaired. The Southern Pacific Company re-routed its trains for a part of the time.

Mystery in Sale of U. S. Collier

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The former United States naval collier Justin, sold recently by the government, has developed into something of a mystery ship.

First, her ownership still is uncertain, and second, the waterfront can't explain the comparatively enormous amount of money which has been exacted upon her. Here are the financial facts:

Eighteen years ago the government bought the Justin for $145,000.

Before her sale they appraised her at $75,000.

She sold for $90,107.

Repairs upon her will cost $70,000. So the Justin will cost her new owners about five times as much as the government thought she was worth and about two and a half times as much as the government paid for her eighteen years ago.

MY TIRED FEET ACHE FOR 'TIZ'

Let Your Sore, Swollen, Aching Feet Spread Out in a Bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Advertisement.

Cocoanut Oil Fine for Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much suds. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain unflavored cocoanut oil, (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get unflavored cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.—Advertisement.

MOTT SPEAKS ON WATERFRONT TITLE

Former Mayor Heard Before the California Civic League.

The story of how Oakland won its waterfront, and an account of the work done in making it one of the important harbors of the coast, were heard by members of the Oakland chapter of the California Civic League at the Hotel Oakland this afternoon, when former Mayor Frank K. Mott was the speaker of the day. The major talk of the early work of the harbor builders and of the completed work. He told of the already assured future of the waterfront, of the big plants now located on the shore, and spoke particularly of the leases made by the city council of the administration, whereby for a compromise price the long leases that had been threatened were entirely done away with.

"To the store? Why, I don't need anything," spoke Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy.

"She and Uncle Wiggily tried, but the monkey was too small. Children that another one could get in. They pushed and pulled and shoved and hauled, but poor Toofles could not get in."

"I am going to the store for myself," Uncle Wiggily said. "I am going to buy a new pair of shoes."

So off he hopped, leaning on his red, white and blue striped barber-pole rheumatism crutch, over the fields and through the woods until he came to the store.

Investigation of Brooklyn Basin, he said, disclosed the fact that the State had apparently parted with its title to the land. He told of the work of the late John E. McElroy in coping with the situation, praising the fight put up by the city attorney.

Mott said, in part:

"There has been some criticism of the action taken in reference to the waterfront on the false ground that it was done in secret. Such is absolutely untrue.

At the whole subject was given fullest publicity through the leading papers and by conference with city fathers and attorneys and other prominent citizens who were acquainted with and interested in the waterfront situation.

"I am GOING TO THE STORE!"

"A very tall and lanky youth was given the matter by the two houses of the Legislature and also by the Governor, and the action of the state authorities made the assertion that the solution of the problem was one of great and very beneficial for the City of Oakland and the people of California."

"It was the desire of the city administration that the water be conserved in the authority of the State, that the occupants and alleged owners of these lands should be treated fairly and justly, that they had acquired these properties by their own efforts and means, paying therefore large sums of money.

In addition, they had expended large sums in making improvements thereon. Many of the lands were occupied by manufacturers that were employing many hands, and were otherwise active business concerns. It was not the desire to drive these commercial and manufacturing enterprises out of the city, with the further understanding that they would be compelled to occupy, use and improve the properties for a term of years, would be a very satisfactory and happy solution. In this way, we would have an absolute title and title to the property, and the people who were occupying it and had expended large sums of money in the purchase of the property, and also large sums in making improvements upon it, would not be dispossessed."

PLAN CARRIED OUT.

"Accordingly, it was arranged that this plan should be carried out, the state to make the water available to the property under cover of the alleged rights and title thereto, and then the city in turn giving back a lease for a period of 25 years, and the city being given the right of action, fixing the amount to be paid as annual rental, it has been severely attacked and criticized, the claim being made that the payment was ridiculous, and that it was admitted in fact that the amount named that the amount fixed as annual rental is merely nominal, and only sufficient to name a consideration.

"On the other hand, they may receive reasonable return on the property, and make it more attractive so as to induce manufacturers and others to locate thereon, it has been necessary for them to expend further sums in making improvements thereon, and the general business value of the property is now firmly fixed in the ownership of the people, to be returned to them for their active control and disposition at the end of the lease term, and when returned will be in improved and occupied with active business concerns."

BUSINESS-LIKE PROPOSITION.

"When we take into consideration the fact that the city has been deriving revenue from the property and using the expenditure of one cent; that the ownership of the lands is firmly placed in the people; that no money are to be expended by the public for the maintenance of the property whatever, that the improvements made prior to the lease revert to the city without compensation at the end of the first lease term; that the improvements and other betterments made only be compensated for the event of the non-extension of the lease, the compensation to be determined by arbitration as to the proper worth of the structure, and the rental, and the lease has been already extended large sums in the purchase of the property and are being required to expend further sums in their improvement and, further, that the city has been derived upon to expand its activities, concluding that a splendid and possible adjustment can be made between the people of this city and the occupants of the East Oakland waterfront."

HOLD SOMERVILLE FUNERAL.

RICHMOND, March 10.—The services over the remains of Mrs. M. J. Somerville were held this afternoon at the Curry Undertaking Parlor, on Washington Avenue. The services were in charge of the Rev. G. A. R. The remains will be shipped this evening to Kansas City, Kan., for burial.

WAY TO GAIN FLESH

Conductor Tells How He Gained Flesh and Strength

So many cases like the following are continually coming to our attention we want everyone in Oakland to know that our offer still holds good to return money in every case where Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, fails to create strength and build up weak, run-down, nervous, overworked men and women.

"I am a conductor on the Scranton Ry. and became run-down and tired out, lost my appetite, flesh and strength, so I had to lose a good deal of time from my work. A friend told me to try Vinol. I did so and rapidly regained health and strength, and yesterday I was weighed and it showed I had gained 26 pounds since taking Vinol. I cannot say enough in praise of Vinol, for what it has done for me," G. B. Sorber, 1513 Vine St., Scranton, Pa.

About every other day we are publishing letters like this in Oakland newspapers, about Vinol. They are guaranteed to be truthful and genuine, and show the good Vinol is doing all over the country. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

P. S.—If you are a town where you live, there is a Vinol drug store.

GARIS' BEDTIME STORY.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SHOP LADY

BY HOWARD R. GARIS

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady, who kept house for Mr. Longears, the rabbit gentleman.

"Where are you going this fine day?"

"To the store," answered the bunny uncle.

"Oh, I must get in," said Toodles.

"Well, I'll try," said the Shoe Lady.

She and Uncle Wiggily tried, but the monkey was too small. Children that another one could get in. They pushed and pulled and shoved and hauled, but poor Toofles could not get in.

"Oh, dear, I don't know what to do," said the bunny.

"You will have to sleep out in the woods tonight."

"Not wait! I have it!" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"When my foot wouldn't go

my new shoe the monkey put talcum powder in it and used a shoe horn. I'll get the toofles."

"And when the little boy was sprinkled with sweet smelling talcum powder, and when the shiny, slippery shoe horn was slipped on the top of the crowded shoe, all the toofles are nicely as you please, and everything was all right. There's no room for one more, even in a shoe you know."

"Thank you, Uncle Wiggily," said the Shoe Lady, and then she gave Toofles his master-bellows whipping, he made believe he had a bad tooth, and went to his real bed. And that's where you must go if it's time."

And if the butter doesn't slide off the slice of bread, and go coasting down the cake plate with a bun, I'll tell you next time.

"Uncle Wiggily and Jack-be-Nimble."

"I must use a shoe-horn," said the monkey.

"I am GOING TO THE STORE!"

"No, wait! I have it!" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"When my foot wouldn't go

"Thank you, Uncle Wiggily," said the Shoe Lady, and then she gave Toofles his master-bellows whipping, he made believe he had a bad tooth, and went to his real bed. And that's where you must go if it's time."

Pretty soon he came to a great, big shop standing in the middle of the woods. The shop had a roof over it, with a chimney sticking out of the top. There was a door to the shop and windows. In fact, it was a house, made out of a great, big shoe which a giant used to wear.

"They're just right," said Uncle Wiggily.

"They go on a bit hard, but once I have put them on with the shoe horn they are very nice. I'll take them."

"And you may have some talcum powder and the shoe horn to go with them, too."

"And when the little boy was sprinkled with sweet smelling talcum powder, and when the shiny, slippery shoe horn was slipped on the top of the crowded shoe, all the toofles are nicely as you please, and everything was all right. There's no room for one more, even in a shoe you know."

GOTHIC — AN ARROW
COLLAR 2 for 25c;
IT FITS THE CRAVATACUTE AND CHRONIC
RHEUMATISM

The exact cause of rheumatism is not known, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of cold in the blood. It has also been suggested that rheumatism may be found which is a附病 in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the past, however, the drug which has been used with the utmost satisfaction, others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment should be tried, including some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. S. Schutte expresses the opinion of thousands of physicians when he says that anti-tamponade should be given in the treatment of all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsurpassed in headaches, neuralgias and all pain. Ask for A & T Tablets.

WOMEN'S CLUBS JOIN IN BIG
CAMPAIGN TO AID Y. W. C. A.TWO Y. W. C. A. WORKERS WHO ARE AIDING IN FUND CAMPAIGN.
LEFT TO RIGHT, MRS. R. L. FOSTER AND MRS. W. E. KROLL.Swimming Pool to
Be the Goal of Efforts

Women's clubs are mobilizing to assist the Young Women's Christian Association in its campaign to raise $30,000 before next Friday night, and a team from the Oakland club, headed by the presiding vice-president, Mrs. Edwin Ormsby, is now in the field of workers. Other clubs have strongly sanctioned this movement.

Yesterday nearly $7000 was raised by the several score of women who had been campaigning for subscriptions under the leadership of Miss Jeanette Dutcher, general secretary of the local association, and of Mrs. E. Passmore of Minneapolis, who came as a member of the national board to lend her experience to the effort. Miss Lillian Janes, of San Francisco, field secretary for the association for California, has joined the forces as another leader.

Though many prominent women are identified with the association, on its board of managers, more than in any previous year have been enlisted among the workers on this finance campaign from girls and women of all classes have come requests for the installation of a swimming pool.

This swimming pool, for which $15,000 of the $30,000 is required, will be located on the northern side of the building, where arrangements for it were made in the plans of two years ago. The association expects it to be a boon to the feminine population of the city, of all ages, sizes and conditions. According to these plans, it will be kept sanitary and the "swimmer" will be a private admission, and at the usual hours any public tank is open. Showers, rentable bathing suits and other provision to make it feasible and possible for the use of women in general to be made.

It is believed by the president, Miss Grace Fisher, that this pool will prove of even more physical benefit and fully as much of a joy to girls as the Young Men's Christian Association's tank is to the thousands who emulate the fish there.

Among the prominent women who are working for the subscriptions are Mrs. Kroll, Mrs. Charles Brown, Mrs. Diana Bondean, Mrs. R. L. Foster, Mrs. Henry Wilson and many others.

The majority of the teams report at a campaus workers' noon luncheon, while the business women and girls describe their achievements at night.

Citizenship Doubtful;
Court Must Decide

Whether Karl Raentsch, claimant to a share in the vast fortune of the late Robert Bruce Armstrong, pioneer railroad builder, is to be considered as an American citizen is a matter that will have to be threshed out when Federal Judge William C. Van Fleet tries a suit brought by Raentsch to set aside certain deeds made by his late wife, Carrie B. Raentsch, prior to her death.

The deeds were made in trust for the benefit of their young son. The couple had been divorced before the wife's death, but the interlocutory decree had not been taken out. Raentsch claims that his wife was influenced by her relatives to cut him off in her will. Raentsch alleges that the property already in trust by his late wife is valued at $100,000, but in an answer to his suit filed in San Francisco by his mother-in-law, Mrs. Lydia T. Armstrong, and her two daughters, Miss Anna G. Armstrong and Miss Ida M. Armstrong, they claim it is worth but $2000. They also deny that they precluded his wife against him.

THOUSANDS SIGN
INITIATIVE PETITION

Committee Reports Many Respond to Statewide Campaign.

I. B. Cary of Fresno, chairman of the committee in charge of the non-partisan referendum campaign and the initiative petition to prevent any governor from appointing legislators to state jobs, was enthusiastic yesterday.

He reported that 13,697 signatures had been obtained to the initiative petition and 11,841 to the referendum in San Francisco. Today and tomorrow he expects to obtain at least 6000 signatures more to each petition here. The outside registration booths, where many petition circulators are working, will be discontinued Saturday night. Cary plans to get as many signatures as possible before then.

EXPECTS 45,000 NAMES.

"I expect to have some definite figures for the entire northern part of the state by Saturday," said Cary yesterday.

"From reports I have received already, I can estimate that we will have more than 45,000 signatures to the non-partisan referendum petition before the time comes to file it. This, together with about the same number south of Tehachapi, will be sufficient to place the measure enacted despite the will of the people, before the voters again."

On Saturday Cary reported more than 6000 already been obtained.

NANAY SIGN IN NORTH.

Other counties in the north which reported to Cary up to last Monday had approximately the following number of signatures to both referendum and initiative petitions: Sacramento, 10,000; Mendocino, 10,000; San Joaquin, 10,000; Tuolumne, 10,000; Solano, 500; Oakland, 2000.

In most counties the time for filing the petitions expires March 19, but in some the county clerks or registrars are willing to receive them down to the last minute, to verify the names and forward them to Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan.

Beere, Sacramento real estate man, was arraigned on a charge of embezzlement, preferred by W. G. McRobertson.

His preliminary examination was set for March 13. McRobertson accuses defendant of withholding $271.55, payments made on a tract of land, the deal having been made through Beere.

Some people have a trick of putting up and making over the clothes of former seasons to look fairly well. But it's rare talent and even if a woman possesses it, she's likely to offend others than she succeeds.

Of course the woman ENJOYS it; it's done simply to make her money stretch. And the number of Oakland women who martyr themselves thus is rapidly decreasing.

This is because CHERRY'S, the big CREDIT STORE, makes it possible for you to buy a smart Suit or Dress AT THE FIRST OF THE SEASON and pay for it WHILE YOU WEAR IT. This is the system: Pay a fraction of the price down and the balance in weekly or monthly installments.

CHERRY'S are showing, in their popular shop at 515 Thirteenth street, between Washington and Clay streets, which is devoted exclusively to ladies' apparel, the most alluring varieties of charming Spring Apparel, Suits, Dresses, Coats, Blouses, Sport Clothes, etc., all strictly new and stylish.

Remember, CHERRY'S have another big shop at 523 Thirteenth street, for men's clothing. They also have two stores in San Francisco, one at 1009 Market street and the other at 2400 Mission street. These stores carry both ladies' and men's clothing. Other stores—Portland, Los Angeles, and Sacramento.—Advertisement.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in March or Face
May Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use ointme—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of ointme—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely.—Advertisement.

PLANT JUICE NOW GETS ALL CREDIT

Popular Pittsburg Lady Claims She Is Cured of Stomach Trouble of Long Standing.

The health of a man or woman is as absolutely dependent upon the condition of the stomach that great care should be taken to see that it performs its proper functions. As age advances the stomach muscles become weak and inactive and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to prompt digestion. Some people are helped by taking pre-digested foods, and in taking plenty of exercise, but this in time becomes irksome. Plant Juice, the new system tonic, puts the stomach in shape to digest the food properly, tones up and invigorates the entire system. Daily testimonials are being received to this effect. One of the most recent is that of Mrs. G. Kramer, who resides at No. 162 Virginia avenue, Pittsburg, Pa., and who has lived in Pittsburg for the past 55 years. She said:

"It is due to my husband that I began to take Plant Juice. He insisted that I try it and although skeptical of its helping me, I began to use it. Indigestion, which I had suffered from for a great many years, and the gas on my stomach, which caused me to be very weak, disappeared almost the first week. My appetite, which had been very poor, began to improve and I continued its use until now I feel like a new woman. I can eat anything I want and all kinds of food agrees with me. I am indeed grateful to Plant Juice, as it has cured me, and I only hope that this testimonial will be the means of influencing some one who suffers from stomach trouble to try it."

Plant Juice is sold in all Owl drug stores—Advertisement.

THE IMMIGRATION SCANDAL

Mr. Anthony Caminetti, Commissioner-General of Immigration, under the Department of Labor, owes some explanation for the lack of consideration he has shown the people of California and particularly of the port of San Francisco.

For years the landing of Chinese stowaways has been going on at this port. Whenever any stowaways were caught it was always on the information or at the request to have the vessels searched of the customs' special agents' office.

This co-operation has always been treated as interference by the immigration officials, and there have been numerous complaints, fully confirmed by such information as the outsider was able to obtain, that search was delayed as long as possible.

Mr. W. T. Boyce, who is now assistant commissioner of immigration, was for many years the officer in charge and is now ex-officio officer in charge. About the time certain changes in the service were arranged for between Mr. Caminetti and Mr. Boyce at least eighty-six stowaways came into port on the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia.

The established prices for the admission of Chinese stowaways into the country at this port, as fixed by years of crooked practice, the details of which are contained in the records of the customs and immigration offices, are from $500 upward. The illegal cargo of the Mongolia was therefore worth at least $43,000. As was usual, this last batch was caught on information and at the request of the special agents of the Treasury Department. From published statements and the records it appears that the letter containing the original information that there were stowaways on board the Mongolia was received by the special agent's office and immediately turned over to Mr. Boyce for translation and action thereon. It is alleged that for three days this letter was not translated. Subsequently the special agent requested the return of this letter for translation and transmission to the United States District Attorney, John W. Preston.

With the special agent standing guard over the immigration men, the eighty-six Chinese stowaways were caught and were all taken to Angel Island under the direct control of Mr. Boyce, the assistant commissioner, and Mr. Joseph X. Strand, the inspector in charge.

The matter was taken up by the United States grand jury and Boyce, Strand, Watchman Graham and others were indicted. It was expected that the indicted men would be at least temporarily suspended, until either found guilty or exonerated, but Washington decided otherwise. The result is that the men indicted by the United States grand jury are in full control in immigration matters, including that concerning stowaways at the Angel Island station. They have control over those stowaways who became government witnesses and have access to them at all times. Boyce, one of the most important officers indicted, discharges the duties of assistant commissioner and acting commissioner at all times when the commissioner should be absent.

Though indicted, he still controls in the matter of vessels bringing stowaways. By special arrangement made with Mr. Caminetti all cases of Chinese applicants for admission are referred for determination to Boyce as assistant commissioner, whose actions particularly determine this respect. The clauses requiring that men on actions of the commissioner, the signature of the ships may demand half their pay upon arrival in latter being but perfunctory. In the absence of port and that all hands must have a knowledge of the language of command, are viewed with serious apprehension, however. Agents and owners fear that the half-pay feature will have a demoralizing effect on their crews.

The La Follette's scaman's act became fully effective this week as regards foreign vessels touching at American ports. Foreign ship-owners have made little complaint concerning the provisions for life-saving apparatus and have generally complied with the new regulations in this respect. The clauses requiring that men on actions of the commissioner, the signature of the ships may demand half their pay upon arrival in latter being but perfunctory. In the absence of port and that all hands must have a knowledge of the language of command, are viewed with serious apprehension, however. Agents and owners fear that the half-pay feature will have a demoralizing effect on their crews.

As to the language test, vessels plying to the tropics have been accustomed to employ Chinese, Lascars and other Orientals on account of their ability to stand the excessive heat in the fire rooms, and it is feared it will be difficult to get English speaking crews for this work. If a change is possible the difference in wages will not be seriously felt for conspiracy in aiding and abetting the illegal landing of Chinese. In connection with some of these cases, important points may come up, and financial feature of more costly labor will have papers were signed by a man indicted by the United States grand jury.

This situation is unprecedented and outrageous. It should not be tolerated for an instant. Mr. Caminetti, by his action, has put his O. K. to this outrage against the people of California and of the most important port in the United States in the plans to prevent forbidden alien labor from entering the country.

GUARD AGAINST ALIENS.

Although there is probably no occasion for serious alarm, but the order of the Navy Department making persons not citizens of the United States ineligible to employment as draftsmen for naval construction is a timely and judicious move. If there are any important secrets in the construction of our battleships, and it is to be expected new features will be introduced in the newly-authorized superdreadnaughts, a draftsman is in a position to gain information regarding them. There is no occasion for taking such a risk of letting military secrets get into the hands of foreign governments.

The science of "spying" has shown a remarkable development in the present war and there apparently is no branch of military activity among the belligerents of Europe into which the eyes of enemy secret agents have not peered. Should we go to war with a great power we doubtless would find that the same thing had taken place to an injurious degree in our own naval and military departments. If it should turn out any other way it certainly will not be due to lack of opportunity which lax regulations have afforded.

MENTAL CLASSIFICATION.

Dr. Martin W. Barr, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble-minded announces that figures he has compiled show that no less than ten per cent of the population of the United States is mentally defective, and that we are paying $94,000,000 annually for the care of the insane and $9,000,000 for the feeble-minded, making a total of $184,000,000 a year for our mentally unfortunate.

The cost of caring for the mentally deficient is impressive. But the percentage of persons below normal is liable to create greater apprehension than is justifiable upon second thought. The rise in the percentage of defectives is to a measurable extent due to the raising of the standard of normal intelligence. The experts have brought this about. With elaborate and ingenious tests they have made new and strange classifications of mentality and some who we have been accustomed to regard as normally sound mentally have fallen down and are in danger of being tabbed as weak-minded. We regret this, but the experts are inexorable and if the Binet-Barr tests should get them we can only sympathize. The psychological clinics do not appear to take account of the fact that a man may be acceptably sound-minded upon some subjects and deficient upon others. If he is caught wrong on one subject he is considered a mental defective as to all subjects. We must be careful.

"BABY WEEK."

There is every indication that "Baby Week" will become an annual affair. It is broad-based upon such sound ideas and meets such an important need that it may be assumed interest in the plan has only begun. The General Federation of Women's Clubs which issued the call declares that the baby who is well-cared for and lives in hygienic surroundings has a far better chance of resisting disease in infancy and later than the baby whose parents are ignorant of the principles of infant care. The General Federation includes about a million women and that is pretty strong support for any idea.

It appears that the entire world has taken notice of the baby week idea. The Federal Children's Bureau reports that it has received requests for information concerning it from the British West Indies, Canada, British Columbia, Alaska, the Philippines and from Indian reservations in the Western States. Conserving the child is an important subject in all countries, but the American movement will doubtless be given special attention by the European belligerents in the near future. Adversity is a disagreeable teacher but has its sweet uses, and baby week will undoubtedly prove one of them.

The La Follette's scaman's act became fully effective this week as regards foreign vessels touching at American ports. Foreign ship-owners have made little complaint concerning the provisions for life-saving apparatus and have generally complied with the new regulations in this respect. The clauses requiring that men on actions of the commissioner, the signature of the ships may demand half their pay upon arrival in latter being but perfunctory. In the absence of port and that all hands must have a knowledge of the language of command, are viewed with serious apprehension, however. Agents and owners fear that the half-pay feature will have a demoralizing effect on their crews.

HERE'S A "REFORM" FOR YOU.

Some time ago the Postoffice Department promulgated a rule that when an employee should be absent from duty for one hundred and fifty days in one year on account of sickness he should be automatically discharged from the service. Now comes a carrier in Westhaway who was taken ill after twenty-six years of faithful service. He was unable to return to duty within the limit of time fixed by the department, so that unless the rule is rescinded or suspended he will lose his place.

It is possible to conceive of any decent private employer of labor discharging an employee who had given him twenty-six years of faithful service? Only a heartless employer would do that. The hardest part of the instance under consideration is that the carrier, after the lapse of sixty days, was being carried on the roll as sick, without pay.

MISHAPS OF
MARY, REAL LIFE DRAMA

A piece of "movie" farce-comedy, which included a race through the streets, a dead box car, over fences, in the back door and out the front, with a sensational roll down a flight of stairs, in which Miss Mary Weber, 1027 High Street, was pursued by an armed woman, who afterwards turned out to be a boy in women's attire, was staged in Melrose last night. The comedy upset the equanimity of the Melrose police station staff, and made the officers contribute to the cast of the scenario.

Miss Weber came running to the police station explaining that she was being pursued by Mrs. Mary Loebes, 5017 East Fourteenth street, and that Mrs. Weber was armed. She knew she was Mrs. Loebes because she had once been out with Edward Loeb, the husband of Mary Weber, told this exciting story:

"I got on the train at the Melrose station. A boy came to me and told me a woman was after me with a gun. My little brother was with me. We began to run, but he far out-distanced me.

"WAVES REVOLVER."

The woman waved the revolver. She could run faster than I, and she gained on me every minute.

"I saw I was going to be shot and I dropped down and crawled under a box car. She ran past the place and lost me.

"I got out and started cross lots on the way to home. Looking back I saw she was still after me with the gun. I ran into the house and she ran after me.

"I ran out the front door and fell and rolled down the front steps into the yard. Then I ran here. She's after me. Oh, please save me."

ALL A LESSON.

Corporal Riley and Patrolman Mullin were detailed to find the woman with the revolver. By and by they came back with Eddie and Willie Weber, brothers of the fisherman Mary, and Ray Boltz, the son of a neighbor.

The boys were all laughing. They had been having a fine time. They explained that Mrs. Weber had repeatedly told Mary not to be out late at night, and that sister had ignored the orders. As a last resort the mother had dressed Ray Boltz in girl's clothes and had armed him with a revolver. She had then told another boy to warn Mary, and had staged the interesting bit of farce-comedy to give Mary a lesson.

My got it.

Buildings May
Play Leap Frog
Parsonage to Jump Over Postoffice

VALLJO, March 10.—How can one hoist a parsonage over a post-office?

This is the question engineers are trying to solve. They have thought of using a big crane and hoisting the whole building—but if it dropped it would interfere with the mails. Dynamite, all agree, would hoist it; but the trouble is it might hoist the post-office, too.

And it has to be moved quick, for they're planning to add two stories to the postoffice, which would make the architectural game of leap frog impossible.

The members of the congregation of the First Methodist church wish to move the parsonage and sell the lot it is on. The only way it can be taken off the lot is by hoisting it over the postoffice, as it is otherwise surrounded with taller buildings.

F. M. Muller, who owns the post-office building, says the place must be moved at once if it is desired to pull it over his building, as he wants to build on two more stories.

Escape by Magic
Love Laughs at Locks
and Bars

Love laughs at locks, bars and bolts, and so do joyous honeymooners, even though their friends lock them into a dark room, plotting to keep them in during the night. Wherefore Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Sparks, newlyweds, visited Hardene, the hamlet, and there they found a magic, and are now far away from the cheerful friends who had plotted to keep them in custody. It all happened last night at the wedding of Miss Vera Morris and Charles A. Sparks in Alameda.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. G. L. Mers. A wedding supper followed. It was then that the plot of the friends failed. During the newlyweds' into a room, they locked the door, planning to hold them until train time. A few moments later they were gone. Whether they jumped from the window, picked the lock, or whether some one related underhandedly to the police, remains a mystery. Their friends caught their train.

Weinstock Talks on Farmers' Problems

Details of the state market commission's plan were told before fifty important California farmers yesterday by Director Harris Weinstock, in San Francisco, when the farmers voted to organize a permanent association to aid in the work of securing good market conditions. Colonel Weinstock, who called the meeting, presided, and E. L. Gossell, of the Fruit Auction Market of New York, spoke on methods. George Shima, cross-examined the New York market expert on the question of advantages of the association to the farmer and brought out several salient points.

Among those who favored organization were Carson C. Cook of Stockton, J. M. Bigner of Hall, P. J. Van Loon, Sons of Yorke, A. T. Reynolds of Walnut Grove and F. H. Harvey of Galt.

Those in attendance pledged themselves to organize the strongest possible producers' association, and Colonel Weinstock was authorized to appoint an organization committee of five.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Henry Ford is to be asked to solve the problem of the high cost of gasoline. If he succeeds, Representative Randall of California says, he will prove a benefactor to the whole country.

Randall is preparing a letter to Ford asking him to test the Rittman process for the manufacture of gasoline. By this process, discovered by the United States Bureau of Mines, it is claimed gasoline can be manufactured at a much reduced cost.

If no other way is to be found, Randall says, the government should manufacture gasoline.

$50,000 Will Contest
Compromised for $1150

Contest over the $50,000 estate of the late Joseph Anderson, noted horseman, which was commenced by his two sons shortly after his death two years ago, has been compromised by them for $175 each and costs.

Reginald and Stanley Anderson, sons by a former marriage, who live in Toronto, Canada, have dismissed their contest.

The bulk of the estate was bequeathed to Mrs. Charlotte F. Anderson and her daughter, Mercedes C. Anderson, in a will drawn shortly before his death, at which time he also went through a marriage ceremony with his wife.

The reason for the ceremony never was given out and remains a mystery. The sons were each bequeathed $1000.

Anderson was owner of Red Delight, a famous Kentucky thoroughbred, which he and his wife brought to their Frutivale place a short time before his death. Red Delight was killed by a street car in Frutivale avenue two months later, while Mrs. Anderson was leading him.

The wounded twenty made civilians, forty-six women and twenty-one children, the statement declares.

MAYOR NOT AFRAID OF LEAGUE'S PLANS

Berkeley Executive Says That Administration Speaks for Itself.

BERKELEY, March 10.—Mayor S. C. Irving and members of the city commission declined today to discuss at any length the formation of the Taxpayers' Protective League, which has planned to call a meeting of all taxpayers to be convened by the council. The meetings set were to be scheduled by the league, of which F. V. Martin is president, and permanent organization is to be effected as preliminary to a mass meeting planned by the members.

Mayor Irving pointed out today that the lighting district plan was now a settled issue and beyond the league's power to reopen. Only 33 per cent of the actual residents on the street have been declared, and many of these, since the settlement of the matter in court, had declined to further any continued opposition to that plan.

The new street reorganization plan, he declared, was still in abeyance, and the council did not propose to act in opposition to the best interests of the city. With regard to street paving he stated that the paving had been ordered in no place where it was not actually and desperately needed, or where the legal majority had protested against it. San Pablo and University avenue paving had not yet pointed out been ordered at all.

Regarding arbitrary fixing of assessments, Mayor Irving stated that he did not believe assessments had thus been made, and that the settling of the basis of assessment over a year ago ample opportunity for protest. He indicated how the board had sat day after day in successive years with a very few, and sometimes no protestants appearing.

"The chairman of the commission and its detractors will speak for themselves," was Mayor Irving's emphatic point.

The Taxpayers' Protective League is making considerable of a score of its plans. The original information regarding its organization was given out by F. E. Koll and Robert Little of Curtis street. To this early disclosure, F. J. Martin, the temporary president, protested. The league wanted to get into action, he said, before its plans were discovered.

The mass meeting project is under discussion now by members. It is planned to hold it sometime toward the end of this month or early in April. An effort will be made to secure several "good speakers." An election of permanent officers is planned to be held soon by the league. The permanent organization of the league is Martin, Little, Charles Haden and several others. According to Martin, a number of Improvement clubs are interested in the movement.

CO-EDS SUSPECTED OF 'LIFTING' SPOONS FROM COLLEGE COUNTER

FAIR CO-EDS IN FAR-FROM-STUDIOUS POSE, PHOTOGRAPHED IN "THE COUNTER."

Campus Girls Are Under 'Suspicion'

Rigid Rules Fail to Impress

BERKELEY, March 10.—If by any chance you are permitted to partake of the delicacies at the Counter, by which name is known the women students' bistro place at the University of California, you must exercise care to obey these rules: Don't steal the spoons. Don't talk to the waitresses.

Both have been adopted there, and they will be followed herself to the letter. Unfortunately the spoon rule has not always been followed. Recently managers of the Counter have had to complain that, in fact, it was being daily transgressed, and that the once generous supply of silverware was steadily disappearing.

One manufacturer of papier mache and plates took advantage of the Counter's trouble and sold his catalog to the managers. These were tossed aside in sorrow, and a watchful eye of the place doubled. The spoons are not good souvenirs, say the managers, being only nickel-plated, and they cannot understand why they disappear.

As to talking to the attendants at the place, nobody knows why that rule is in existence, but it is. One of the women students recently wrote to a campus publication in protest. It was too lame-some for the attendants, she said, when they couldn't talk. And, besides, she did not see how it worked any harm either to attendants or waitresses.

Despite the little difficulties the Counter continues to be one of the most popular places of feminine resort on the campus. The noon hour especially finds it rushed. Light lunches are served and various refreshments, dear to the feminine soul, are dispensed during the day. It is particularly for the women students of the university, and men have no place therein at all. The men, instead, patronize their own "Joint."

PIONEER MINING MAN PASSES AWAY

David Almon Bender Dies at His Home in Berkeley.

Says the Former Detective Has Told Council a "Pack of Lies."

BERKELEY, March 10.—David Almon Bender, 72 years of age, and a pioneer Nevada mining man, banker and railroad promoter, died yesterday at his home, 260 Piedmont avenue. He had been retired since 1909.

Bender was born in Ohio, moving to Virginia City in 1862. In 1870 he and his brother, Charles P. Bender, opened a banking business in Reno. The bank is now the Washoe County Bank. Bender was the promoter of the Virginia City Truckee and the Carson and Colorado railroads. He came to San Francisco in 1897 to live, retaining his interests in Nevada.

Bender was survived by a widow, one son, Ralph W. Bender, of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. Philip Young of Houston.

Two Killed in Wreck on Oregon Railway

THE DAILIES, Ore., March 10.—Fireman Lew Kaster and Brakeman J. W. Stupenau were killed, and Engineer Alfred Williamson was seriously injured as a result of the wreck of a freight train between Wasco and Biggs on the Shoshone branch of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company early today.

MRS. HOLLYWOOD DEAD.

ALAMEDA, March 10.—Mrs. Martha E. Hollywood, wife of the late Joseph Hollywood, is dead. She was a native of El Dorado, Wis., and was a pioneer resident of this state, coming here at the age of two years with her parents. She was a member of the Republican party of El Dorado and was in the world famous El Dorado association. Her death occurred at the home of her son, Charles B. Hollywood, 1519 Fernside boulevard. She is survived also by a daughter, Mrs. E. Jackson, of New Orleans, California, and two other sons, Reuben H. and Hamilton Hollywood. The funeral services will be conducted from the residence parlor of the Fowler Undertaking Company at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Respondent Over Drug Habit; Attempts Suicide

Driven to despair because he was unable to free himself from the drug habit, J. J. Melton made his second attempt at suicide last night when he jumped into the estuary at the foot of Clay street. He was rescued and removed to the Emergency hospital where he will recover. Persons who have interested themselves in his case will have him sent to a state institution. Melton declared that he is willing to do anything to obtain a cure. "I came to Oakland two weeks ago. My home is in Los Angeles," he said. "It is difficult to obtain a supply of the drug here and was forced to pay $10 for a small quantity. It gave out and I had no money to obtain more."

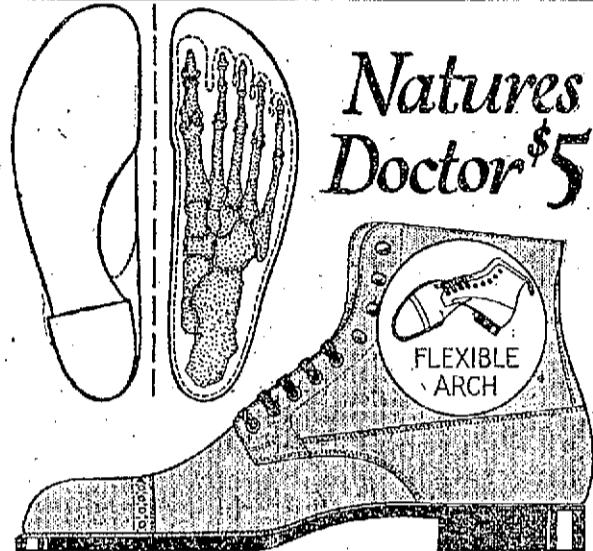

Wednesday night Melton, who is a bartender by occupation, slashed one of his wrists with a razor and went to bed expecting that he would bleed to death. In the morning, when he discovered that he had not reached a vital spot with the blade, he went to the Emergency hospital for treatment. Then he left only to seek a new method of relief from his misery.

STARTLING PROPHETIC ON EGG.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 10.—"The end of time—1916." These words appear plainly on an egg laid last Wednesday by a little white Leghorn hen belonging to James Francis of McKee's Rocks, says the Tri-States News Bureau. The letters of the prophecy are embossed in dead white.

The American Health Shoe

A SHOE designed strictly on ANATOMICAL LINES, exactly as specified by eminent scientific authorities. The only shoe at the price, or anywhere near it, which combines the five essentials of an ANATOMICAL SHOE.

1st. Straight Line on the inner side from the heel to the big toe—Nature's Line.

2nd. Flexible Shank allowing the foot-muscles freedom to expand and contract—Nature's Action.

3rd. Canted Heel throwing the weight on the outer side of the foot—Nature's Poise.

4th. Convex Sole on the inside, fitting the transverse arch at the ball of the foot—Nature's Curve.

5th. Snug Uppers made on right and left patterns to hug the instep; supporting it firmly but pliantly, not rigidly—Nature's Support.

It is NOT clumsy, square-toed, NOT the blundering contortion of a cobbler's unscientific mind who guessed without studying the anatomy of the foot.

It is NOT noticeably different from any well-bred shoe. In fact, it HAS a distinctive style of its own that compares favorably with a custom shoe.

Its orthopedic features are incorporated without making it look like an oddity. It can't hurt your foot—and it won't hurt your pride.

IT STANDS ON ITS OWN MERITS. Examination by experts is solicited. THE NATURE'S DOCTOR SHOE represents the most progressive ideas in science as applied to Footwear.

ATTEMPTS TO BREAK STORY OF GIRL FAIL

Conspiracy Against Pastor Will Be Urged in Defense

OROVILLE, March 10.—Gertrude Lamson, 15-year-old accused of Rev. Madison Slaughter, Chico minister, to face a grueling test in court when attorneys hammered at her structure of evidence in an effort to break down her charges against the minister. The girl, declared by her mother, who sides with Dr. Slaughter and disbelieves her daughter's story, to be "farther grown physically than mentally," told a connected story, although apparently nervous and overwrought. She had steadied herself for the ordeal when she entered court and throughout the morning testimony no flaw could be disclosed in her story.

Dr. Slaughter was in an energetic mood. He quizzed at the audience, conferred often with his attorney, and watched the girl witness curiously. Several times the judge had to threaten to close the court to suppress demonstrations in the audience. SAY THREATS WERE MADE.

The beginning of the Lamson girl's testimony was taken yesterday and today began with the salient parts. Mrs. Lamson, who collapsed in court, was present to hear her daughter's story. The former, on the stand, stated that she had learned that her daughter could not be believed and stated that she believed the pastor innocent. It was declared that a young man, whom the girl states she was also familiar with, instigated the story and an attempt will be made to prove this by the defense.

Mrs. Thomas Whidden told of the girl's staying at her home and several times being sent to the Slaughter residence when her own house was crowded. After one of the visits, says Mrs. Whidden, the girl made charges against the pastor to her. The pastor denied them, and she says threatened to send the girl to a reform school if she persisted in making such allegations.

"I am telling the truth!" she shrieked, when the defense tried to cross-examine her.

MOTHER AGAINST DAUGHTER.

The girl's mother, pale and nervous, told of her daughter's life and stated that the girl could not be believed. "Gertrude has grown physically faster than she has mentally," said the mother, "and we have found that we cannot depend on the truth of what she says."

She testified that the girl had been employed as a domestic by Slaughter and others, and told of meetings between herself, the pastor, and her daughter, when, she says, Slaughter denied the charges made against him.

Thomas Whidden declared that Slaughter had accused Mary Partridge, his organist, and Howard Allenger, a youth also accused by Miss Lamson, of starting the story. Oliver Taylor offered corroborative evidence regarding certain phases of the girl's testimony.

Progress today in the getting of the girl's evidence was slow and several waits were forced when her overwrought nerves failed her. It is expected that tomorrow will see the be-

Commissioner F. F. Jackson
Summarily Disposes of Reports.

rumors that an attempt was to be made to oust Building Inspector Joseph Lloyd as a result of the alterations in the city council two days ago, during which Lloyd attacked Commissioner H. S. Anderson. Were summarily disposed of today by Commissioner F. F. Jackson.

"There is no more probability of removing Lloyd than there is of removing me," said Dr. Jackson. "I told him when I appointed him to do his duty under the law, no matter what pressure might be brought to bear upon him. I told him I would back him up no matter who it hurt, because he was in the right."

"I believe he is right. He cannot be removed without my sanction, and I shall not give that."

"You may have noticed that he has caused the arrest of Macdonald, so that the controversy before the council the other day has been taken to the courts, and Lloyd is going to press the matter there."

LLOYD'S CASE PUT OVER.

William Macdonald, who called Lloyd a "rat" in council so many weeks Wednesday night, was arrested last night on a charge of violating the city building ordinance. The case was called before Judge Samuels' court today, but was not put over till tomorrow morning for arraignment at the request of the defendant.

Macdonald is represented by Attorney Peter Crosby. He declares he will fight the case to the finish.

The cause of controversy was the matter of making alterations in the front of a building at 1731 Broadway, owned by Macdonald. He attempted to obtain a permit, according to Lloyd, and as the building is a wooden frame structure within the fire limits the building inspector halted work on alterations. Macdonald appealed to the city council to grant him a special permit, and while the matter was pending, went ahead with the work.

ROW IN COUNCIL.

Lloyd told the council he had heard Commissioner Anderson tell Macdonald to "go ahead," and that was the reason he had not caused an arrest to be made. Anderson and Macdonald branded the statement as a lie, but admitted that they had had a conversation over a business affair in which the words "go ahead" might have been used. They declared it to be an unqualified falsehood that the commissioner had told the owner of the building to make alterations in spite of the law.

Lloyd apologized before the council, but the incident, while ostensibly closed, left bad feeling on both sides. Talk of removing Lloyd began to be circulated.

It is known, however, by the fact that Commissioner Anderson and Bacon attempted, he says, to prevent him from defending himself before the city council when he was attacked.

Martinez-Concord
Road Is Applicant

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The Martinez and Concord Interurban Railway Company made application this morning to the State Railroad Commission for authority to issue securities to defray the cost of constructing the first mile of its line from Martinez to Concord. The distance is nine miles and the first unit will be 3.3 miles in length and will run from Martinez to the tracks of the Santa Fe, where a connection will be made. The company proposes to inter-busine business with the Santa Fe immediately and with the Oakland and Antioch at Concord as soon as the complete line is constructed. It is estimated that the first unit will be completed in

Suffered For Years

There are many people who will be interested in the experience of Mrs. Julia Byard, Fort Benton, Mont. She writes:

"I suffered for years with gall-stones. A friend wrote me about Frutola and Traxo. I started taking it and am completely cured now and feel better than I have felt for twenty years."

Mrs. Byard's testimony is similar to that of many who have given this remedy chance to help them. Frutola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural way. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Traxo is a splendid tonic-alterative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation.

Frutola and Traxo are prepared in the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., and arrangements have been made to supply them through representative druggists. In Oakland they can be obtained at The Owl Drug Co. Stores.

Church Women Plan an "Irish" Program

The ladies of the Boulevard Congregational Church are planning an elaborate Irish evening to be held at the home of Mrs. F. F. Morse, 2735 Seminary avenue, Saturday, March 18.

A program will be recorded the one telling the best story typical of the evening, which will also include a high-class program of music and readings. The ladies of the church have assumed the responsibility of paying for the new organ recently installed and the proceeds of the evening will be applied to this fund. On the committee in charge are Mrs. Mauda Graham, Mrs. Mamie Grier, Mrs. Anna Law, Mrs. Kittle Morse and Mrs. Flora Tuttle.

Cottolene

"The Natural Shortening"

Try this recipe for making orange layer cake

Cream one-half cup Cottolene with one cup of sugar until very light. Add three eggs, one at a time, beating in each for five minutes before adding another.

Then sift two teaspoons of baking powder with two cups of sifted flour, mixing thoroughly, and add to the other materials, alternating with a half cup of milk or water—(water if the cake is to be eaten while fresh).

Beat the batter well after all the ingredients are in. Bake in 2 layers in a moderately hot oven for about 20 minutes.

Cottolene is superior to anything else you can use for shortening or frying. It is wholesome, its use is simple, and it gives a delicious flavor to all foods that are shortened with or fried in it.

Order a regular supply of Cottolene, the Natural Shortening, of your grocer. It is put up in pails of various sizes to suit your convenience.

Write our General Offices, Chicago, for a copy of our real cook book, "HOME HELPS."

How to stop dandruff and loss of hair with Resinol

Here is a simple, inexpensive treatment that will almost always stop dandruff and scalp itching, and keep the hair thick, live and lustrous:

At night, spread the hair apart and rub a little Resinol Ointment into the scalp gently, with the tip of the finger. Repeat this until the whole scalp has been treated. Next morning, shampoo thoroughly with Resinol Soap and hot water. Work the creamy Resinol lather well into the thescalp. Rinse with gradually cooler water, the last water being cold.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment easily heal lesions and similar skin-eruptions. Sold by all druggists.

Torchon Club to Give Spring Dance

This evening will see the Torchon Club members and their friends participating in the spring dance which is to be held at Maple Hall.

An exceptionally fine program has been arranged and the promises are that the evening will be as live as the liveliest spring ever manufactured. The managers of this affair have manufactured a few stunts, chief of which will be the Torchon's Anti-Gloom feature. This feature will be a surprise to all the club members and should make a hit with every one.

This season's dances are under the management of Will Stevenson and Phil Schleifer. These two have endeavored to make the Torchon club dances above the average and the general opinion is that they have been successful. The spring dance has been carefully planned and gives promises of being the best of the series.

Dirt and Rock Slide Blocks S. P. Traffic

RAKERSFIELD, Calif., March 10.—A landslide at Tunnel No. 15 near Lang, ten miles from Bausch on the Southern Pacific, blocked traffic. Train No. 26 had to detour over the coast route from Los Angeles, but later train will be sent by the normal route. The slide is ten feet deep and thirty feet long of dirt and rock, coming down the mountain across the track. A gang of fifty men with the work train is working at the slide.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

An engagement of interest in Oakland recently has been announced in New York, that of Miss Harriet Wirschauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wirschauser, whose home is in the metropolis, to Mr. Boris Lionel Samuels, son of Judge and Mrs. Boris Lionel Samuels, of Oakland. The wedding will be on an event of the year.

Mr. Samuels is a young man of the world and there are many regrets for his departure. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wirschauser, of Oakland. Her friends are sending congratulations to the young couple.

The wedding is to be held in New York two years ago to impress the American Photo-Plaver Company, and has been most successful. His fiancee is a charming girl, who will be much entertained by the people in Oakland. The young people are to make their permanent home in New York.

IN SANTA BARBARA.

Jack Neville, who has been in Santa Barbara for the golf tournament, was entertained at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Murphy, who are the parents of the bride, will be married next Friday afternoon at the Hotel Oakland. There will be three ribbon bearers. Messrs. Henry Richard, Edward, Florence, Muriel and John Robert, all of whom are the best known in the community, the young couple are to reside in Berkeley, where both are popular in the younger set of society. Miss Graff is a very attractive girl who has been entertaining many friends in the past few weeks. She is a sister of Mrs. Armin Graff, who married Miss Lola Cutler last summer.

MRS. GLASS ENTERTAINS.

An unusually interesting tea was given this afternoon by Mrs. Henry Glass.

MISS MORRILL'S WEDDING.

One of the interesting weddings of the month will be that of Miss Ida Graff, daughter of Mrs. M. L. Graff, of 1220 Clay, on Saturday afternoon, April 1, at the Sequoia Country Club, where she will be much missed on the links, and where several informal farewell entertainments have been planned for her.

The wedding is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McDuffie of Los Angeles, the latter of whom is a cousin of Mrs. Harry East Miller and Mrs. Harrison Clay. They recently came to town to attend to residence.

MISS GRAFF'S WEDDING.

Bill Kenworthy Is Named by Elliott as Team's Field Captain

ABSENT-MINDED ABNER—He Ascertainment Just How Simple a Simple Thing Can Be!

By WALT McDougall

BOBBY DAVIS IN CAMP; ZIMMERMAN ALSO ON DECK

Ex-Beaver in Splendid Condition; Should Be Real Star.

(Special to The TRIBUNE.)
BOYES SPRINGS, March 10.—The newspaper correspondents who are up here snooping around for items grabbed a live one this morning when "Howdy" Elliott at the breakfast table announced to the assembled athletes that William Kenworthy would be field captain for the 1916 Oaks. The announcement was greeted with cheers and the usual demands for a speech, whereupon "Bill" arose, straightened his tie, cleared his throat, pulled down his vest, and spoke as follows: "Gentlemen, I thank you."

Seriously, every one believed that Manager Elliott had made a wise move in appointing Kenworthy, the team leader for the ex-Fed is a shrewd, peppery player who knows the game thoroughly and who has learned a lot from the astute George Steinbrenner whom he worked last year at Kansas City.

Kenworthy and Elliott will dole out a new system of signals at the camp this year and try and arrange an effective batting order.

Since the team looks as though White Zimmerman would be the quick leader man, with Roxy Middleton second, Bill Kenworthy third, Ruth Gardner fourth, Elliott fifth, Barry sixth, Davis seventh and Bebeau eighth. Of course this may all be changed. Davis may lead off or Bebeau, who held that position for the Milwaukee club, in this case, Zimmerman might be put in third place if he proved a reliable slugger. Anyway, the team figures to develop a whale of a wrecking crew.

Bobby Davis got in yesterday from New York. Bobby seems to have grown quite a bit taller and huskier since we last saw him. And doubt as to Davis' having recovered from the fracture he suffered last year can be dispelled. The ex-Beaver captain has been playing basketball all winter, and he is just as agile as ever. Beyond being a lit soft, Davis is in grand fettle, and tickled to death to be on the road again.

Elliott told his men today that he would start the regular spring program tomorrow. Hitherto the boys have been doing pretty much as they pleased, but from now on there will be a definite program for them to follow.

Barry, Middleton, Martin and Prulett are expected either today or tomorrow.

The checker championship of the Oaks Club changed hands last night, when Bill Kenworthy defeated Bill Prough who had held the title for a whole winter. Captain Ken bears his honors modestly.

Every room in the hotel is filled today, and the incoming players will have to take to the cottages. Joe Burk and his wife are occupying the cottage used last spring

OAKLAND GOLDS OFF FOR CHICAGO

Oakland's Crack basketball outfit, the "Y" Golds, left for Chicago last night, via the Santa Fe, amid the shouts and plaudits of a large crowd that came to see them off. Frank Bock, team coach for several years and Oakland High School physical director, accompanied the team, which was made up of nine men, namely, George Hjelle, Ed Street, Walter Woods, forwards; Marshall Hjelle, "Shorty" Brown, center; Will Laughland, T. Waddell, Harvey Lewis, guards; Harold Guardini, manager and sub-guard. The team will travel via the Santa Fe both ways, and on the return trip will stop off for four games arranged by the railroad people in their behalf. T. A. Rigdon, passenger agent of the Santa Fe in Oakland, showed the team every courtesy and consideration, and made the trip possible by very generous arrangements.

Arnold "Red" Kemp and Coach Foster of the Olympic Club basketball team left last night for Chicago, too. They will join the Olympic Club team, which left Sunday last, in Chicago. Kemp is perhaps the most dependable forward on the Olympic line-up and his presence is badly needed by his teammates.

By Harry Wolverton. They are reserving accommodations for Gerald Beaumont, sports editor of the TRIBUNE, and his wife, who will join the camp Sunday morning.

Hap' Myers Completes Wolyerton's 1916 Club

Bob Fisher Only Holdout Who Is Bothering Frank Chance

Hap Myers, former University of Calif. first baseman, and more lately a member of the Fed., was signed by Harry Wolverton, manager of the Golds. Myers first big position left vacant by Harry Hellman on the Seal team. Myers is a balling fast basplayer, and was one of the best basplayers in the Fed. circuit last year, hitting at a .252 per cent and stole 30 bases last season, which is a pretty good figure.

Myers will fit right in with "Chick" Autrey for the regular position Autrey, who is manager of the American Association by Wolverton, when Hellman was put on the hospital list and put up a clever brace of bats.

Myers' signing practically closes Wolverton's negotiations for ballplayers until after the spring starts. With him on first, Jerry Downs at second, Jones third, Bobbie short and Schaller, Bodie will face the Beavers in the opening game of the season with quite a nifty batting order. Myers is in Rochester, N. Y., at present, but will speed out here as soon as he can pack his belongings.

Declarating that he will not report until the Angels meet his terms, Bob Fisher, little shortstop star of the Chicago Cubs, who was turned over by Joe Thirler to the Angels, remains the only hold-out on the Angels' squad. Fisher, who is the Angels' offered the ex-Cub quite a healthy salary figure, but, according to Los Angeles reports, Fisher is at present negotiating with two big league managers, and as yet has not signed with any club. He can't see why he should report to the Angels, unless he receives a big increase in his salary. The rest of the Angels' crew has either signed contracts or been signed terms, and the Angels' Powers states that he will place Fisher on the suspension list if he refuses to come through.

Dicky Pawley, veteran Tiger outfielder, will probably join a team in the outlaw Arizona league, that is, if President Eddie Maler of the Tigers does not place him with some other organized baseball team.

Leach Cross has retired. As he passes, lifts your hat for there was a fighter he fought well.

The New York dentist has been banging away for ten years trying to get the title chair, but fate seemed to be just a hop-skid-and-jump ahead of him. When Milburn Taylor finished Cross after knocking him down five times, he brought to a close a career that is a credit to just plain fighting.

Leach wasn't clever. He was tricky, but honest. Never has he had a finger pointed at him. He always tried his best because he couldn't do anything else.

The bantam fighter was decided, since Taylor beat him, to go to the dogs. Powers states that he will place Fisher on the suspension list if he refuses to come through.

Dicky Pawley, veteran Tiger outfielder, will probably join a team in the outlaw Arizona league, that is, if President Eddie Maler of the Tigers does not place him with some other organized baseball team.

Willard Has Height and Reach

Here are the comparative measurements of Jess Willard and Frank Morris, batted eight rounds in New York on March 23: Willard—Age, 29; Height, 6 ft. 1 in.; Weight, 247 lbs. Morris—Age, 29; Height, 5 ft. 11 in.; Weight, 234 lbs.

20 in. . . . Chest, normal . . . . 45 in.

20 in. . . . Chest, waist . . . . 38 in.

14 in. . . . Biceps, normal . . . . 15 in.

15½ in. . . . Biceps, flexed . . . . 16½ in.

14 in. . . . Neck . . . . 15 in.

17½ in. . . . Calf . . . . 15 in.

15½ in. . . . Ankle . . . . 10½ in.

Willard's height and reach are of course his forte, and Johnson's are of

Reminiscences of a Veteran Sporting Editor

By MR. MULDOON.

In writing of present day battles the other day I told of how the bouts between the little fellows were usually more interesting than those between the heavies.

In the early days of boxing in England the question of weight cut but little figure.

When James Figg, nearly 200 years ago, began to give exhibitions in cleverness in the use of his fists, the English prize ring first took its place among recognized sports.

Figg was not a big man, but he was so quick and clever that he was able to beat anything that came against him.

He was therefore the champion.

And there was no classification of weights.

Any man who thought he had a chance to beat Figg was welcome to fight him.

But that sort of thing played out a little later.

As the game began to spread throughout England and the United Kingdom generally, and a great many fighters dropped in, even the weight soon became necessary to make a distinction between small men, or lightweights, and the fellows who were big enough to go against anyone.

So we had the first classification, lightweights and heavyweights.

Fighting is such a splendid exercise and so exciting a game that it has grown more and more popular every year since the prize ring was established.

And in the course of a few generations so many good men sprang up that another division separated the men who were neither light nor heavy—the middleweights.

And after a few generations more there was another split off—the featherweights.

When Billy Edwards won the lightweight championship by beating Sam Collyer, in 1888, the lightweight limit was established at 112, ringling, at that time, among other very little men.

There was, however, a difference of two pounds, or thereabouts, necessary to win the championship, from Frank Goch, little holder and Iowa's most famous featherweight.

We've heard much about the scissor hold. We read how this young athlete from Nebraska has started the sporting fraternity by his easy winning, on account of the wonderful strength of his legs.

Stecher has such wonderful strength in his shanks that he has been known to break barrels and boxes with his scissored hold, never can crush an opponent's legs with his famous hold.

Stecher collects money for wrestling. According to the latest dope this youth is gathering as high as $4000 a week.

TECH. VS. DAVIS FARM TEAM TODAY

The crack Oakland Technical high school baseball outfit, last year county champions, figure to have a hard job on their hands this afternoon, when they tackle the Davis State Farm team. The farm boys are represented by a clever team this year and should make matters highly interesting for the local team. Either McCourtney, Russell or Jackson will work on the mound for Tech, while Eby, Keene and Lindgren will divide the catching honors. Torrington, first; Kneek, second; Keay, third; and Gerlach, shortstop, will comprise the infield, while Smalls, Bill Fretz and Johnny Faquin will work in the outer gardens.

A thing or two in relation to the scissor hold: The scissor hold is applied about the body above the waist. By applying this hold the kidneys are punished much the same as the kidney punch in boxing, the result that the opponent is squeezed into insensibility and submission.

Stecher is the master of this hold, as well as many others. He is only twenty-four years old, but has yet to have his shoulders pinned to the mat. He also has great strength in his arms, and as soon as he grabs an opponent by the hand to hold him, he can crush an opponent's legs with his famous hold.

And it might be stated that Stecher collects money for wrestling. According to the latest dope this youth is gathering as high as $4000 a week.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Southern Pacific State baseball outfit will meet the Oakland high school team at Bushrod Park tomorrow afternoon. The game should produce plenty of entertainment. Edwards, one of the best of the local bushers, will be opposed on the mound by Russ Ellington, the slender Oakland twirler. Dowd, the tall, burly pitcher for the S. P. boys, while Truck, Schmidt, O'Conor at short, and Querolo will take care of the S. P. infield, with Sczozofava, Ferraro and Sprinkles cavorting in the outer garden.

Pat O'Hara, former U. C. star and at present associated with the playground department of Oakland, is coaching the team this year and should make matters highly interesting for the local team. Either McCourtney, Russell or Jackson will work on the mound for Tech, while Eby, Keene and Lindgren will divide the catching honors. Torrington, first; Kneek, second; Keay, third; and Gerlach, shortstop, will comprise the infield, while Smalls, Bill Fretz and Johnny Faquin will work in the outer gardens.

Harold McGurty, manager of the Crystal Laundry team in the TRIBUNE Class League, was operated on Wednesday afternoon and will be at the Merritt Hospital. All local amateur baseball players hope for his speedy recovery.

"HOME" to me is some place whar thar's real affection an' good cookin', entirely surrounded by pipe smoke.

ONE of the greatest "comforts of home" is a tin of VELVET. For VELVET'S aged-mellowed flavor puts the "seasoned" taste into every pipeful.

Velvet Joe

The game is scheduled to start at 3:30 p.m.

It was soon after the Edwards-Collyer battle that a new arrangement of weight was made.

It was ridiculous to make a 120-pound man fight as a lightweight against a 100-pounder. Of course, a 100-pound man is a different animal from a 120-pounder.

So the best men in the boxing game got together and arranged these classes:

Bantamweight—Anything up to 122 pounds.

Featherweight—Anything up to 125 pounds.

Lightweight—Anything up to 132 pounds.

Welterweight—Anything up to 144 pounds.

Middleweight—Anything up to 158 pounds.

Heavyweight—Anything above that.

These same weights have been unchanged, but there has been very little difference made in them.

Weight has had more to do with the worth of the little fellows than with the heavyweights.

Terry McGovern beat Pedlar Palmer at 116 pounds, and was the featherweight champion of England at Tuckahoe.

Then he beat George Dixon at 118 pounds, and put on three or four pounds more to become the bantamweight champion.

He beat him again after that McGovern couldn't get anyone to fight him, for he was too fast and too strong and clever for any of the boys in his class.

The story goes and I have never heard of any other, that McGovern and Sam he beat him again, and Sam Corbett, then a young Corbett, to bring him to New York to fight him. Not only that, but he was twice as fast as in 125 pounds three hours before the fight. That was a costly match.

Young Corbett, of course, ate a heavy meal and put on three or four pounds more to become the featherweight champion.

ANGEL ISLAND GIRL IS MISS SAN DIEGO

Will Represent Exposition in All Formal Affairs of Season.

SAN DIEGO, March 10.—Without plots, bloodshed or civil war, and accompanied only by a few secret handshakes, "Miss San Diego-1916" has been chosen.

If choices had resulted, the victory might have been the same for Miss Marian Vodges. The young woman chosen to represent the exposition at all formal functions during the year, is the daughter of Charles D. Vodges, major in the United States army, retired, and granddaughter of General L. Vodges, who won his promotion in the Civil War. From the time of her birth, twenty-five years ago, at Angel Island, she has been a "daughter of the regiment."

Miss Vodges was chosen by a committee of artists and journalists, appointed by President G. A. Davidson of the exposition. No names of young women nominated were made public from the time the list was submitted to the board until the final selection was announced.

"Miss San Diego-1916" is considered a typical San Diego girl. She is a blonde, with brown hair, flashing, big brown eyes, olive complexion with high color, is 5 feet 6 inches tall, weighs 125 pounds, and her favorite sports are swimming and horseback riding.

FUNERALS, ONE CENT.

OROVILLE, March 10.—Butte county accepted the bid of an undertaker yesterday, who agreed to bury the indigent dead of the county at the rate of one cent an indigent. For this sum he agreed to encase the body in a "substantial pine box, harmoniously stained," and to bury it at a depth of four feet in the ground.

WILL AUDIT BOOKS.

The voice was unanimous: An expert will, every year, check up the books and look for any mistakes. An audit on the books, say the members of the board, would have disclosed the errors in teachers' salaries at once.

The first of the evening's disputes started with the vote on this question: It was necessary to suspend the two-reading rule to pass the audit rule at once. A vote was called on the audit when this technically was brought up, a vote called for on suspension, and roll call started.

"What's this about?" asked Director Boyle.

"Let us wait," suggested Mrs. Hawes, "until some of our members understand what this is all about."

"I guess I can understand, all right," retorted Boyle.

A request from the Y. W. C. A. to be permitted to circulate doggers in the schools asking aid in the plan of the organization to purchase a swimming tank, was the next cause bell. Boyle moved to grant it, Superintendent Barlow to censor the doggers.

"You're putting a string to the gift," said Edwards.

"I think the matter should be referred to the superintendent," urged Miss Brown.

"This is a good thing, and let's not have all this fuss about it!" demanded Boyle.

The request was finally granted.

FRUITVILLE COMPLAINS.

Charges that conditions at the Hawthorne school are unsanitary, that the portable schools are untenable, and that the entire institution was unfit for use and too small, were made by the Board of Trade of Fruitville. Henry Harkmeyer and E. Wrenen signing the complaint and calling investigations by P. C. Frederickson and others.

"Please accept my resignation. I am going to get married," wrote Miss Emily McCormack, a teacher. The resignation was duly placed on the minutes.

Harry Boyle and the rest of the board crossed swords when Boyle requested permission for the Lockwood school band to play at a department festival.

"I object," said Cook, "to the boys playing on Sunday."

"Parents may have scruples," said Miss Brown.

There was no second.

"I have made a polite request to the board," shouted Boyle, springing to his feet, "and the board has turned me down. It's all right! I just want it spread on the minutes for a record. That's all! What follows will follow!"

President Cook started to take up another.

"Just a minute!" shouted Boyle. "Mr. Secretary, have you got it on the record?"

"Of course, I get everything on the record," retorted the secretary. "They turned you down—that's what you want recorded."

"That's the idea," answered Boyle.

OBJECT TO CLAIM.

Miss Brown and Mrs. Hawes pitted themselves against the rest of the board in a protest against the payment of $100 for a surety bond, incidental to the appeal in the Supreme court in the Taylor-Turner suits. In which the board is seeking to avoid payment of wages to two discharged employees, who, on the ground that they were contract men, obtained a judgment for salary in the Superior court.

Mrs. Hawes, on the finance committee report, put in a minority report objecting to the claim. Aber and Boyle signed the warrant.

"I move that this minority complaint be stricken from the record," said Boyle.

"Yes," urged Edwards, "what is it all about?"

The claim is in the Turner-Taylor bond, said Mrs. Hawes.

"That's all right," remarked Edwards.

"Strike it out," shouted Boyle.

"This is spending the city's money needlessly and illegally," insisted Mrs. Hawes.

"My protest ought to be given consideration."

Boyle moved to lay it on the table. This was carried. Mrs. Hawes and Miss Brown voting against the plan. The claim was then passed.

Changes in the issuing of requisitions for emergency school supplies are to be outlined in the committee sessions next week, a better system for watching expenditures against budget funds to be adopted, on motion of Director Edwards.
